STAR FESTIVAL

LAST EVENING, Sumi-san, a Japanese friend of mine, called to ask me to join her on a trip to Hiratsuka, a city forty miles south of Tokyo. From Tokyo "Eki" (station) we spent an hour on the train in order to reach our destination. The hour was filled with new experiences as she introduced me to many Japanese customs. At a stop in Yokohama she leaned out the window to call to a man who sold her two Japanese dinners in small wooden boxes. At each station you are able to buy these dinners, but some stations are more famous than others to their food. This dinner, called an "ot-oto" was like a box lunch, inside the box, which was wrapped in colourful paper, there was a little jar of soya sauce, mustard, chopsticks and a towel with which to wash our hands. The food itself consisted mainly of cold rice, peas and meat wrapped in small cakes. It didn't particularly appeal to me but when you stop the bus for ice-cream and at another, orange juice. You have to be very quick in purchasing these things as Japanese trains are not always stopping on time and they don't waste any time for being on time. As a matter of fact, they say the trains are so prompt that you can tell time by them.

Christian Viewpoint

By "Simon" THE THRILLS OF FISHING

more days, and the holidays most people when accompanied him on many of his fishing trips. Presently he spoke again, and I knew he had been thinking of more important things. "What a thrill it must have been for Andrew, Peter, James and John, when Jesus said 'Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.'"

Sports Highlights

when Guyatt got an infield hit and Reekie made a throwing error. Pete Barber had a home run and a double, French had a double, Heimbecker, Guyatt and Swanton each had singles for the All-Stars.

New Garage Replaces Structure Destroyed By Fire Last January

Fourteen persons find employment at the Lundy & Henderson garage. The partnership started in August 1941, although A. B. Lundy operated the business alone for some time previous to this. The fire which gutted the building in January last year, however, left the staff out of work. The partners, however, A. B. Lundy and W. E. Henderson, arranged for accommodations in several other locations around the village and maintained the business. Cities Service trucks, however, are a distinct credit to the firm. General Motors Products handled by Lundy & Henderson include Chevrolet and Oldsmobile, Corvair and Envoy cars and Chevrolet trucks. Special attention is given to truck servicing and they have the equipment required to give prompt service.
