...ny there are whose friend... ...and lives are blighted because ...e incident, quarrel or thought... ...action for which they would ...er seek nor offer forgiveness. So often we ourselves are stubborn in our relationships, unwilling to yield or bury our pride and make the first step in reconciliation.

The season of Lent reminds us that we have all been guilty of actions and thoughts which have marred our relationship with God and that because of our reluctance to confess our faults, God has taken the initiative. Forgiveness is always at a price, whether it be a matter of pride, confession or even sacrifice. At Calvary, man can brought about the crucifixion of God's Son, but rather than using it as an occasion for wrath, God used the Cross as the very symbol of love and forgiveness.

A few days later I met Thomas again and this time I knew he was impatient to tell me something. Almost immediately he told me how his friends had 'patched up' their differences. Both of them had realized that they were at fault and that, though at the time their differences seemed important, they now knew that their friendship and neighbourliness was even more so.

Many people today are concerned about the serious tensions and differences that exist between the nations, yet seem unconcerned about their own relationships with their neighbours. As the family is the basis of national life, so healthy personal relationships are the basis of national and international understanding. So often people say there is so little that they can do to improve world relationships, but if everyone of us were to acknowledge our complicity in local misunderstandings and seek to restore our broken relationships, we would each contribute to the improvement of international affairs.

Easter Seal Campaign Gets Underway Today

As the dark winter begins to die March becomes the bright month of hope for more than 14,000 crippled children and teenagers in Ontario who have been afflicted by accident and disease or disabled by certain conditions from birth that usually mean despair and dependence on others.

And since hope in action is charity, 222 service clubs including The Jarvis Lions Club, open their month-long annual Easter Seal drive on March 17 for $350,000. That's the price that must be paid in 1960 to make life better for youngsters who would otherwise find it harder - if not impossible - to become self-reliant and self-dependent citizens.

Easter seal contributions provide treatment and training, vacations in specially equipped camps and all other benefits that the 37-year-old Ontario Society for Crippled Children has developed over its history to children.

Down through the years Easter Seals have paved a way for a program which now provides 25 specially trained nurses who serve as liaison with service clubs across the province, seeking out crippled children and directing them to treatment centres, providing them with home nursing skill and teaching parents what to do to help the handicapped little ones take advantage of medically prescribed plans for rehabilitation.

In five camps, unlike any other camps in the country, hundreds of youngsters will have a chance at summer vacations, barred to them otherwise because they cannot play exactly as other children do. In these camps counsellors with knowledge of what to teach the kids to enjoy life, to learn how to care for themselves and to give many patients hope which their conditions have not aroused.

Easter seals, too, enroll the services of leading physicians and surgeons who give their time and skills at the clinics which the Society and the service clubs organize at strategic centres in Ontario where local doctors may bring their young patients for examination and recommended treatment. From the clinics the children go to hospital if necessary or back to their homes for a program of planned therapy or training supervised by the Society's nurses.

In the field of cerebral palsy the Society's Easter Seals have made possible advances that are dramatic even though the task is painfully slow and expensive. At various treatment centres throughout the province teams of nurses are teaching children to walk, to talk, to feed themselves and dress themselves - even to become helpful family members instead of helpless victims of a condition that once spelled hopelessness.

A contribution to the Easter Seal Campaign means a membership in a crusade of mercy and service to children who, through no fault of their own, are enormous burdens of affliction, but who need a little help to carry those burdens much more lightly.

OBITUARY

MRS. JOHN WODHAM

Elizabeth McNeil Brown, widow of the late John Wodham, passed away on Tuesday, March 8, 1960 in Mrs. Johnson's Nursing Home, Port Dover after a lengthy illness.

Born in 1877 in Woodhouse Township, she was the daughter of the late John Brown and Elizabeth McNeil, pioneer residents on the Scotch Line. United in marriage to Mr. Wodham in 1910, she resided in Walpole Township until moving to Jarvis in 1951 after the death of her husband.

Mrs. Wodham was possessed of a kindly and friendly disposition and throughout her life took an active part in the life of Knox Presbyterian Church. The Women's groups were very dear to her heart and until her last illness she was an active member of the W.M.S. and of the Ladies' Aid.

The Jarvis Women's Institute over a period of fifty years and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by one brother, Mr. Neal Brown, and one sister, Mrs. Robert H. Miller, both of Jarvis. Two sisters and one brother pre-deceased her, Miss Martha Brown, Mrs. Ellen Mitchell and Mr. Thomas Brown. A number of nieces and nephews also survive.

The funeral service was conducted from the Senn & McKenzie Funeral Home, Hagersville by her minister, the Rev. Howard D. Smith of Knox Presbyterian Church, with interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Simcoe. Pallbearers were Russell Miller, John Brown, James Brown, Archie Laidman, Clarence Swing and Albert Pettit.

DINNER PARTY MARKS 39th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A dinner party held at Less Restaurant in Mt. Hope on Saturday, March 12th was an occasion to honor Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marr who observed their Thirty-ninth Wedding Anniversary. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. MacKinnon and Mr. and Mrs. David Ince of Hagersville and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Church of Jarvis.

After winning the first two games of the series the Jarvis "Chevies" appear to have run into a snag, as the Ayr Rockets have come on to tie up the series at two games each. The fifth game of this series will be played in the Port Dover Arena to-night before an anticipated capacity crowd. The boys feel that they can win this game and go on to take the series. After winning by scores of 10-2 and 6-2 the "Chevies" appeared to be on their way to an easy series win but the Ayr boys have come to life winning by scores of 5-4 in Ayr Saturday night and 5-3 in Port Dover Tuesday night. It seemed as though Jarvis was getting the breaks in the first two games and taking advantage of them but this has been reversed as Ayr got the breaks in the next two games therefore the series is all even. To date there has been plenty of excitement and the crowds have been improving with each game, approximately 450 being in attendance on Tuesday night in Port Dover. The winner of the series gets a bye into the finals. They would open about the end of the month. We'll see you at the game then.

Joint Services A Success

Two of the joint Sunday evening services have now been held and the attendance is increasing. On Sunday last the service was in the Presbyterian Church and the Rev. Howard Smith conducted evening worship, assisted by the other two ministers. The musical part of the service consisted in an anthem very ably sung by the Choir, and a pianoand organ duet. The Rev. R.J. Warren preached a telling sermon in which he pointed out how the Cross of Jesus Christ reveals God's love. On Sunday the service will be in the Anglican Church with the Rev. H. Smith as preacher.
