WHY DO GOOD PEOPLE SUFFER?
The report of the year was most gratifying with Mrs. J. B. Murray, Caledonia, recording secretary, giving the report and the corresponding secretary report was given by Mrs. George Richmond, Simcoe, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. B. E. Hare, Simcoe, with Mrs. C. W. Hower, Simcoe, giving the Christian Endeavor report. This was followed by another interesting address by Mrs. R. E. Hare, Simcoe, with Mrs. C. W. Hower, Simcoe, giving the Christian Endeavor report. This was followed by another interesting address by Mrs. R. E. Hare, Simcoe, with Mrs. C. W. Hower, Simcoe, giving the Christian Endeavor report.

"Nate" Pond Celebrates 85th Birthday

One of the best known citizens of Jarvis, Mr. Nate Pond, celebrated his 85th birthday on Saturday, April 2, 1960. Several friends and neighbors gathered to celebrate with him on Friday evening when they visited him, bringing with them a beautiful "Birthday Dinner" which was served at his home.

Urges Care in Setting Up Egg Marketing Plan

Toronto: Ontario egg producers should "walk on eggs" or tread lightly right now while they develop a marketing system for their product, which will bring reasonable prices and stability to their industry. At the same time, they should be careful in the thought underlying the setting up of the marketing plan, according to the Ontario Egg Producers Association.

Sports Highlights

Chevies 1 Game Down In Provincial Finals

Fourth Game Tonight In Port Dover Arena

The Jarvis Chevies must come from behind and win two games in a row against Brooklin in order to win the championship in the O.R.H.A. Intermediate "A" finals.
The first game was played at the Port Dover Arena on Thursday night of last week when the Chevies took an early three goal lead in the first period and held the lead until the second period when Brooklin added a goal to tie the game. In the third period, the Chevies scored twice to win the game 5-3.
The second game was played in Port Dover on Saturday night. The Chevies again led early in the first period and despite a sustained attack by Brooklin, the Chevies maintained their lead and won 4-1 in the final minutes of play.

WEDDING
SWAIN - AMBEAU
The wedding of Mary Margaret Swain and Fred D. Ambeau was celebrated in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Hamilton, at 3:30 o'clock on Saturday, April 2, 1960. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swain, St. Mary's and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. Swain of Jarvis.
The Rev. F. John Bartlett officiated at the ceremony and was assisted by the Rev. Murray Creal. Mr. Ambeau gave his daughter in marriage with white and blue bouquets. The bride wore a princess-styled gown of lace and silk organza over tulle with bodice of Chantilly lace and full skirt. She carried a white and blue bouquet of flowers. As maid of honor, Miss Georgian Smith wore a sheath-style dress of pink-colored brocade with short sleeves and the neckline forming a V at the back and a full overcoat of organza. Her low headdress was of matching organza. She carried white carnations with touches of shrimp shamsade.
