MORE SALT PLEASE!

Thomas had been away, and a sparkle that enriched the lives of men.

Today in many ways, we see a world that is decaying. Values, once of ultimate importance pass away, and in a materialistic age, we place greater emphasis upon the things which pass away rather than upon the things that are permanent. In the world of culture, many of the masterpieces of art, literature and music have given way to cheap and sensual substitutes. In the realm of faith and worship, we are satisfied with self-centred and man-made gods. Confronted with such a troubled world and the constant race for personal gain, it is not surprising that larger mental hospitals are being built for those who "crack" beneath the strain.

In such an age, only the christian faith can prevent the decaying forces from undermining our life and culture, and only by such a faith can man find a "true zest" for life.

"More salt, please!"

Record Crowd Witnesses Races at Harewood Track

The Sports Car Races at Harewood Saturday attracted a record crowd. With nearly fifteen thousand and paid admissions it was estimated nearly 20,000 people were attracted to the scene to witness the feature Carling 200 which was divided into three heats of 30 laps each.

The overall winner was Young Rod, Gen Perake of Pennsylvania who drove his 1600cc RSK Porsche faultlessly to win all three heats and to break the lap record. 19-year old Peter Ryan of Mount Tremblant, Que., driving a Porsche RS-60 placed second overall, 31 seconds behind the American. Belgian ace Olivier Glendobin, driving a 1600cc Porsche finished third to give the German cars a clean sweep of the first three positions.

Harry Entwistle of Hamilton came fourth followed by Bob Holbert of Toronto, in fifth position.

Weather for the big day was not exactly ideal. Showers during the morning finally let up around 1 P.M. The wet track added to the hazards faced by the thirty-eight cars as they made the tricky turns.

Traffic throughout the day was particularly heavy on the main highways leading to Harewood Acres.
