NOTICE
 I deeply appreciate the generous support U have given me in the old Barber Shop and I will be looking for U in the new shop.
 When we separate the word "Business" into its component letters we find that U and I are in it. In fact if U and I were not in Business, it would not be Business. Therefore if Business is to remain Business, we must keep U and I in it. Furthermore we discover that U comes before I in Business and that the I is silent, it is to be seen not heard. Also the U in Business has the sound of I which indicates that it is an amalgamation of the interest of U and I and that when they are properly amalgamated, Business becomes harmonious and altogether profitable.

Editor and Wife Receive Royal Treatment . . .

Mr. Warren Keen makes presentation of a Tape Recorder and tape recordings of complete program to Mr. and Mrs. Laird Miller while M.C. of program, Mr. Ernest Craddock looks on. The occasion was the celebration of their Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary.

Friends and Relatives Present "This Is Your Life" Program

The life and legends of Laird and Nellie Miller were unobscuredly revealed last Saturday night, when more than two hundred friends and relatives gathered at the Jarvis Community Hall to pay tribute to them on the occasion of their Twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. It was truly an amazing tribute, as well as a complete surprise, arranged by a committee of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Craddock, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Miller. The evening was highlighted by a program entitled "This Is Your Life" in which thirty-nine people, all of whom have been associated with the couple in some aspect of their activities, took part and expressed their impressions of those associations in moving and sometimes hilarious fashion. Those taking part included: Ida Pulsom, Harold A. Miller, Mary Marr Kathleen Hayes, Reg. Leatherdale, Stewart McNeilly, Mrs. Effie Hodges, Dorothy Atherton, Cyril Saunders, Margaret Woolley, Warren Keen, Marion Miller, Nancy Miller, Diane Miller, Lea Marshall, Jean Nixon, E. Moore, Jack Horne, Samuel H. Morris, William Williamson, George Graham, William E. Austin, John Anderson, Marjorie Mitchell, Elmer Marshall, Gordon Blight, Raymond Montague, Edward Montague, Norman Miller, Bruce Stadder, Hon. James N. Allen, John Martin, Dorcas Doughty, Byron Lanikster, Don Leatherdale and Lloyd Ruthford. The Bride and Groom of Twenty-five years ago were escorted into the darkened hall by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graham. After being seated in a row at the front of the room was called to the stage immediately after a spotlight on the M.C. Ernest Craddock. Before utterance of the funeral of her cousin in Buffalo on Monday.

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot find words to adequately express the appreciation we feel toward all those who had a part in the arrangements and joined in the event which marked our Twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. We have long been proud to have Jarvis as a community without peer in the whole world where human kindness so freely manifests itself; where a community of people recognizes that the greatest satisfaction comes from the kindness and thoughtfulness expressed on our behalf. We are, indeed, grateful to you all.
 Laird and Nellie Miller

In the evening Dr. James Finlay, of Lakes United, Toronto, was the Guest Preacher. AUTUMN
 AUTUMN IN JAPAN extends over the months of September, October and November. September parts the result that the weather is rather unstable because of the cold and warm masses of air and the big typhoons. In early autumn there are temperatures exceeding those of warm mid-summer days but they never last long. The weather becomes cooler and more pleasant day by day as the length of the day and the amount of daylight becomes shorter, the clouds and crickets scene is shorter, the grass and foliage become discoloured. With the harvest season, pears, apples, persimmons, figs and grapes appear in abundance in the fruit shops.
