LAYING IN STORE

By “Simon”

“All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players; they have their exits and their entrances; and all one man in his time plays many parts, and his scene is all second childhood and mere oblivion.”

“The resurrection confirmed the power of God. Because I live, you will live also,” said Jesus. Life is a gift that is unlimited and abundant in it. The blessings God has in store for those that love Him. More than this Jesus promised that “He went to prepare a place for His followers.”

“The speaker at the first meeting of the Jarvis Lions Club last week was Glen C. Reicheld, a charter member of the Lions Club, who is President of the Canadian Hereford Association which is celebrating its twentieth anniversary at the annual Family Night held here last week.

REPORTING FROM THE FAR EAST

THIS WEEK I thought you might be interested in reading about a typical day in the life of a foreign service secretary in the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo.

At 12:30 the car again takes us to our various homes for lunch. However this summer it has been my practice to stay at the Embassy pool and where we can swim in the Embassy pool and have lunch there at the cafeteria in the Embassy. It is very pleasant as the pool is surrounded by well-kept gardens and trees.

At 2:00 tickets resume and continue until 5:30. The afternoon's activities will be very similar to those of the morning except that the work has to be prepared for the out-going evening mail. Reports for Ottawa are despatched on specified days so these days are usually the busiest. Like any office girl, I am always ready to leave at 5:30 and again we are chauffeur'd home.

Twice a week before dinner I am tutored in Japanese. On other evenings there may be a flower arranging lesson, a cocktail party or reception, a friendly get-together with friends or just a quiet evening for reading and writing. Being with Japanese friends and exploring Tokyo at night leads to many interesting discoveries. In this respect I find my social life differs widely from what I am my social life differs in each conversation, each trip and each evening out opens a new world to you. There is always something new to learn about living in Japan, through work and play.
