Back In The Days Of Real Vaudeville

In my old Washington there were several theatres. The Lafayette Square Opera House, later the Belasco Theatre, and now a USO centre, faced the White House...

Neckline Divine PRINTED PATTERN

New neckline intrigue! A wrapped effect in front descends to a V-Back, highlighting the superbly flattering cut of this dinner sheath...

MANY HAPPY RETURNS - Twin sisters, who may be the U.S. nation's second oldest, celebrated their 95th birthday recently in Conway, Tex. (A pair of twins, 97, live in Maine.)

Caroline Keeps The White House Hopping

Bouncy three-year-old Caroline Kennedy may not have sat in on any Cabinet meetings as yet, but it's only because she's found the right door.

LOOK-ALIKES - One is TV's Annie Fergie; one is the winner of a national "Angel" look-alike contest.

Chronicles of a Ginger Farm

April 1... All Pools' Day. And it certainly was. We woke up that morning to find the snow still falling.

When schoolchildren of Columbia practice their Indian rain dance the skies were clear and blue. Later, when the dance was being performed for the benefit of fond parents and other visitors in the school's open-air theatre...

Gay, Cozy, Easy

Family treasure! Take this eye-to-knit Afghan as a tip-in, to game, or use as a wintry sign.

Family treasure! Take this eye-to-knit Afghan as a tip-in, to game, or use as a wintry sign. Choose a lively 4-color scheme or scraps for this attractive Afghan. Knitted silk melton - join later. Pattern: TK. Knitting directions.

Caroline Keeps The White House Hopping

When the President reported to his office recently with a patch over his eye, he admitted it was Caroline who was responsible. He had stooped down to pick up a toy she had dropped and bumped his head on the corner of a table.

Mouse Charmer

Striking the pose of an Oriental snake charmer, 11-year-old Heather Wilding plays a concert on her recorder.

A Face-Lift For A British Queen

Skilled workmen recently gave the former British queen a good scrub down and some beauty treatment. She is Boadicea, whose statue in her great chariot on London's Thames Embankment was specially groomed in preparation for being floodlit to commemorate the nineteenth centenary of her victory over the Roman invaders in A.D. 61.
