BEST INTERESTS

We saw a letter from the Liquor Control Board of Ontario to a Napanee resident advising him that his licence was cancelled. There is a pleasant little typed-in postscript saying "This action has been taken in your own best interests." Now if the government would just take over the tobacco industry, it might save a lot of us from lung cancer because we're absolutely sure that it is "in our best interests" to smoke. Napanee (Ont.) ### CHRISTIAN SERVICE BRIGADE CAMPOUT

Now we trust in God to keep us safe and sound for Christ.

Because we want to serve Him. Until we see Him face to face. The Brigade Watchword. Get Well repeated during the Battalion meeting as a reminder of the Brigade's main purpose.

At 1930 on July 21, all gear and passengers were packed into the cars. The Brigade was then on its way to the shore of Lake Erie in Captain Percival's car.

The night's four good-will ambassadors, all of them young men, who were sent to the shore of Lake Erie, were: Captain Percival, Mr. Willard Marshall, who was absent because of a sore throat, and Mr. Dave Foster, who was a member of the brigade.
