

We never thought Sam Morris would ever scoop us on an editorial release favorable to the Progressive Conservative Party. He wouldn't have done that, except for the fact we were out of production last week due to holidays. At long last Sam has publicly proclaimed the virtues of the Hon. James N. Allan, the sterling representative for the constituency of Haldimand-Norfolk in the Ontario Legislature. We have known since his entry in the Provincial Political field in 1961 that he was a friendship material and have tried to tell Sam the facts of the situation. He refused to listen to our verbal analysis of our member's qualifications. But now he appreciates how fortunate Norfolk County has been over the past ten years, to have had a representative like Jim Allan at Queen's Park. Now that our political differences have been solved, what will we have to argue about?

When we learned that Doc Austin had been rushed off to the Hospital the other morning we reflected regretfully upon some of the things we have said about him in this column. The truth of the matter is, we think quite a lot of Doc and hope that his sojourn in the house of physical correction is of short duration. Until he completely recovers his health we pledge never to say another unkind word about him. But if he gets feeling as good as we do, after our experience down on the hill, we promise to withdraw this pledge.

We understand a Medical Doctor will be taking up residence here very shortly and will move into the office of the late Dr. E. M. Jones. This will be good news to the people of this community. We have been fortunate in that we have been reasonably free of serious illnesses or contagious outbreaks of any kind these past few months but with the winter season approaching it will be a matter of satisfaction to all knowing that a Doctor is available nearby.

WILFRED LEACH IS NAMED CROWN ATTORNEY

Wilfred W. Leach, Q.C., of Dunnville, has been appointed Crown Attorney for Haldimand County, to succeed Harrison Arroll, Q.C., who leaves the appointment for forty six years.

The appointment was announced by Hon. James N. Allan, following approval by the Cabinet last Thursday.

The new Crown Attorney was educated at the Orangeville Public High School and was awarded the Leonard Scholarship. He attended the University of Toronto Medical School for one year, and as a Junior Officer in the Lorne Scots, volunteered for overseas service in the Second Great War.

He was mentioned twice in dispatches and was discharged from Army Service after the war with the rank of Major.

TO OUR PATRONS & FRIENDS

We wish to thank those who took part and donated for the beautiful gifts presented to us at the Jarvis Farm. By a surprise party, words were not at hand to fittingly express our thanks and appreciation.

We enjoyed our stay in Jarvis among such friends and wish to thank one and all for their support in making our business a success. We would ask that you give our successors the same support.

The Hagersville Credit Union is not without support, having given us a very nice gift of clock and pen set. Again we say "Thank You" to all.
