WE TAKE IT FOR GRANTED

[illegible] often that my friend journeys to the city of Toronto when he does, he always comes with some thought provoking observance. Visiting in the city days ago, he had occasion to ride the subway. Finding the walls of the tunnel rather directed his attention to tiless advertisements that found along the walls of way cars. Many of them by were "very eye-catching," particular caught his attand occupied his thoughts The advertisement had been here by a certain firm of kers and in its caption had owing words: "TIME, is ng that is taken for granted people."

on as Thomas had left the found myself thinking about rds. There was a lot of food ght in them. When school to its normal routine in a the parents of many teenll hear again the familiar "O, there is plenty of time." many interesting things to es can wait. Class parties, ball meetings, to say nothing in the boy friends car make tions seem worlds away. until suddenly they are here.

Likewise the leader of many an organization who has just sent the invitation to the next Guest Speaker because "there is plenty of time," oftimes discovers that the next meeting has arrived without its speaker. Doubtless as the years go by, it becomes increasingly clear to us that time is not as plentiful as we thought.

Time is a commodity we all are given, yet always it is surrounded by unknown limitations. The author of the ancient Book of Ecclesiastes reminds us of this when he wrote: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose." (Eccl. 3.1. f). God who created us has set certain limits to our lives which cannot be altered. There is a time to be born and a time to die, the ancient writer declares. A time to be silent and a time to speak out. A time to sever old associations and a time to "patch up" broken friendships.

How much time each one of us has is an unknown factor, yet many of us live as though our lives need little planning. We have time for the immediate, but not for the ultimate; time for the transitory, but not the eternal; time for self, but not for God.

Maybe IT'S TIME to put our lives in order — NOW!

A good crowd is expected to be on hand to give the local boys their support.

LABOUR DAY HOLIDAY

The first weekend in September brings the Labour Day holiday, and the last long weekend of the Summer Season. The streets and highways will be loaded to capacity with families taking advantage of the final holiday before the children go back to school, and with those returning from the summer at the cottage.

Transport Minister Rowntree said today that driving hazards will be high this weekend, and he urged all drivers to take extra care and to drive with due care and attention, giving every consideration to other users of our highways.

Mr. Rowntree reiterated the fact that the increase in fatal accidents this year had been alarming, even though the overall accident picture was improved.

"This needless waste of life, limb and property can only be reduced if drivers accept moral responsibility for their driving actions, and follow the few common-sense rules of safe driving," he continued.

Some of the safe driving hints Mr. Rowntree offered as a means of making this Labour Day weekend a safe one were:

1. Ensure that your car is a safe car - good tires, brakes and steering.

2. Pay strict attention to your driving.

3. Maintain a safe distance between yourself and the car ahead — one car length for every 10 miles per hour.

4. Maintain a steady speed - don't drive with bursts of speed.

5. Take regular rest stops - avoid driving when you are tired.

6. Never pass unless you have a clear vision ahead for sufficient distance to complete the manoeuver.

Finally, Mr. Rowntree said that he considered it an excellent idea to watch the fellow in the car behind — the car in front of you. "It is surprising how thoughtless he can be at times."

Brief Notes for the Busy Farmer

- By Haldimand Harry -

Sheep breeders and in particular those who are raising lambs for the market will be interested in learning of the new premiums being paid on lamb carcasses. Those grading Choice (A) and weighing 36 to 51 pounds will be eligible for a $2.00 premium from the Canada Department of Agriculture. Likewise, those in the same weight range and grading Good (B) will qualify for a premium of $1.00. The lambs must be marketed through a packing plant where official grading services are available and they must be accurately identified by metal ear tag or other positive form of identification. There must also be manifests accompanying the shipments listing the identification.

-oOo-

It has recently been announced that in spite of all the research that has been done in Eastern Canada and the U.S. there still does not seem to be any sure fire remedy for face fly in cattle that does not call for daily treatments or at the best every three or four days. There may have been some remedies advanced but they have never been approved for use in Canada. There are a number of livestock sprays on the market that can be used effectively but these must be sprayed in the form of a fine mist. Hand applications, using a sponge, brush or cloth to the face and cheek of the animal will provide better protection but care must be taken not to allow any of the liquid to get into the eyes and this method requires more time.

-oOo-

Horn flies—those dark grey flies about half the size of house flies—usually gather in large numbers over the withers. They can be controlled by the use of methoxychlor (50 per cent wettable powder). One heaping tablespoonful is enough for each animal. This should be sprinkled over the back, neck and sides of the animal and rubbed into the hair by hand or brush. The treatment should be repeated every ten days or two weeks. Calves, heifers, dry cows and milking cows can all be treated. A heavy rainfall might shorten the interval between treatments.

-oOo-

Dutch Elm Disease may not be the problem that it once was in Canada. A recent survey of trees in the Niagara Peninsula has been made by officers of the Department of Lands and Forests. It was found that 60 per cent of the trees in the areas surveyed were elm but that only 35 per cent of the elm showed any symptoms and some of these were very minor. Less than 5 per cent of the trees were dead or almost dead. So, only 20 per cent of the total trees are infected. The distribution of the diseased trees was erratic. Some locations had 60 per cent of the elm affected whereas in other places there was practically none. Infected trees were first identified in the Port Maitland area in 1954 and there are still many healthy elm trees in that area.

-oOo-

This is the time of year to remind ourselves not to graze alfalfa during September. There really should be no real reason for doing so this year as there is plenty of other pasture. If the alfalfa field is to be plowed this fall it may of course be pastured but studies at the O.A.C. have shown that alfalfa stands that were grazed during September yielded one ton less hay the following year. There was also much more winter killing. If it is necessary the crop may be grazed in October but 4 to 6 inches of stubble should be left to protect the plants over the winter season.

-oOo-

Holstein breeders in Haldimand are reminded that the entries in the 1964 Futurity Class must be forwarded before September 1st to the Department of Agriculture, Cayuga. All breeders in the county were mailed complete information several weeks ago but so far the entry has been disappointing. Remember the post mark on the envelope must be not later than September 1st in order to qualify.

-oOo-

Did you know that hay and grain elevators were involved in twice as many farm accidents in Ontario in 1959 as were corn pickers. It has generally been considered that the corn picker was the most dangerous piece of equipment on the farm and there is no denying they are a serious menace unless handled with care and caution. Other equipment however can also present serious hazards.

MIDGETS TROUNCE FONTHILL TO SWEEP SERIES

The Jarvis Lions advanced into the second round of the O.B.A. Play-offs Friday night as they swamped Fonthill by the score of 16-2. This gave Jarvis a sweep of the series as they won the first game 16-0.

Jarvis played errorless ball behind the fine one-hit pitching of Larry Cassidy. Fonthill got their only two runs in the sixth inning when Cassidy hit a wild streak and walked 4 batters, 2 of which scored on an attempted pick-off play.

Kish started for Fonthill, being relieved by Keith and Reid in that order. They combined to fan 5, walk 12, hit one batter and give up 16 hits. Cassidy gave up 1 hit, 7 walks, 1 hit batter and struck out 12 batters.

Fred McKeen led the Jarvis hitting attack with 2 doubles and 2 singles. Herkimer had 2 doubles and 1 single while VanEvery had 2 singles and 1 double. Larry Cassidy hit the only homerun in the game to help his own cause. Gary Mitchell hit 2 very long balls but one was a ground rule double and the other hit a tree and was ruled a dead ball so he had to settle for one double along with D. Nopper and L. More, while K. Graham had a single.

No word has yet been received as to whom Jarvis will meet in the second round but they are sure to begin this round within the next week.

TOWN LEAGUE SOFTBALL

On Tuesday night the Jarvis Town League softball teams played off the semi-finals and arrived at which teams will play for the championship tonight.

In the Pee wee division the Braves went hog-wild and outhit and outplayed the Dodgers to win the semi-finals by the score of 24-4. This gives the Braves a berth in the finals against the Yankees, who ended up on top of the League, but this means nothing, however, as the Dodgers had twice as many points as the Braves in the League.

In the Bantam division the favoured Tigers dropped the Indians by the score of 22-20.

This was a see-saw battle all the way with the Indians making a desperate attempt to win the game in the final innings. The Tigers will now meet the Maple Leafs on Thursday night immediately following the Pee Wee game which gets underway at 7.30 P.M.

DAWSON CITY OUSTS ST. GEORGE

Last Thursday night Dawson City eliminated St. George from the O.R. S.A. Playdowns by the score of 4-3. This was the 3rd game of the series after each team had scored victories on their home diamond.

It took some harsh talking from (Bill and Harold) to pep up the Dawson City crew to help them overcome an early 3-1 lead by St. George, and win the game in the eighth inning.

BOWLING FANS

The Record is hoping to publish a series of articles on "How to Bowl 5-Pins". These articles are created by Bert Garside and Jim Hoult, Chief Instructors of the Double Diamond Advisory Council, two pre-eminent Canadian players, who have probably instructed many more bowlers in recent years than any other fivepin experts. This series will begin in a few weeks and will continue every week for 26 weeks.
