Signing guest books is old hat for veteran newscaster John Cameron Swayze who made first trip to Toronto recently. Visit was to launch Swayze's Notebook, which will be heard Monday, Wednesday and Fridays on the CBC Dominion radio network. Greeting Swayze as he arrived was Toronto businessman Ray C, Robbins.

How was he weighted? How was he weighted? How was he ridden? Maybe that is life, it is teamwork that of an organization—of sharing the responsibilities and the final lesson, that is life, it is teamwork that counts.

Norm has been teaching these boys the lessons referring to and the results he has obtained by teamwork has proved it to them. The team should go quite a way now wants to give a little assistance, it might be a good idea to see the coach and tender their services—either for transportation or in some other cate gory.

FUR SALES

The 58,577 pelts auctioned this season at North Bay by the Ontario Trappers' Association fur sales service brought Ontario trappers $325, 131, the lands and forest department reports. This marked an increase in the pelt volume of more than 65 per cent over the 1959-60 season, but dollar volume increased only about 25 per cent because of lower raw fur prices at all auctions in Canada and the United States.

by the East German leaders is not unanimously supported by the people and it is only natural that the East Germans should envy the relative luxury of Western living in contrast to their own poverty. Nevertheless, it would be foolish to hope for a revolt of the East Germans while Walter Ulbricht is in control and allied with Soviet Russia.

Cutting off the East from the West by a wall through Berlin is instended as a symbolic gesture by the communists, but it is also a practical move. Not only will the wall help in prevention of escapes to the West, but it will also remove from sight the prosperity of people in the free world and check the making of odious comparisons.

ENCOURAGING FAIL

Almost an inch of rain had fallen by Saturday morning at Gander and it promised a day-long fall in much of Newfoundland. It was the heaviets rainfall in three months.

Officials at forest firefighting headquarters at Gander saw it more as an encouragement for firefighting that had turned almost 1,500 square miles of prime timberland into charred wasteland. They said at least five or six inches of rain was needed. At least half of the troop reinforcements sent to aid firefighters were slated for Bonavista North, where a fire with a 30-mile front last week was threatening a string of coastal communities. The remainder were to go to a blaze in the Dunn's sight the prosperity of people in the free world and check the making of odious comparisons.

The threat of Krushchov to make a separate peace treaty with East Germany should not alarm the West. If he goes ahead with his plan, it will mean that East Germany will be the nominal negotiator in any arrangement that East and West may come to about the future of Berlin and to negotiate with East Germany entails a recognition of the government. If that is all the Russians and East Germans hope to get out of fomenting the present crisis, they may well succeed. Recognition would be a small concession in comparison with a war.

Recognition of the East German government would annoy the West Germans who sentimentally look in wages. "The loss is appalling, shocking, paralysing," he said.

The Western powers that the western powers that least less dangerous to world at least less dangerous to world peace than the strong Germanies of the Kaiser and Hitler were. East Germany is also a good buffer state between East and West. While it exists as a separate nation its people are unlikely to attack their brother Germans or permit the passage of Russian troops through their country for that purpose.
