SUBJECT OF ADDRESS GIVEN AT LIONS CLUB DINNER MEETING

Lion Bill Clark a Past Secretary ployment, one set of figures quoted of the Jarvis Lions Club was the speaker at the last regular meeting. The introduction made by Lion Lorne Porter of the Program Committee disclosed that Lion Bill was born and educated in the Town of Hagersville, joined the Armed Forces with the 102nd Battery of Dundas in 1940, at various points where courses emdischarged in 1946 with the rank of Troop Sergeant. Married in England in 1942, he returned to that country with his wife and made his home there until 1948 when he came back to Canada He was employed at Lun.

there until 1948 when he came back to Canada. He was employed at Lundy & Henderson as book keeper, he moved to Jarvis in 1951 with his wife and daughter. In 1957 he accepted a position with the Unemployment Insurance Commission and is presently Supervisor of the Employment Branch, National Employment Service, Simcoe Office.

Taking as his subject "Education And Employment" a matter of great importance to every Canadian, he gave a brief history of unemployment insurance. While this service is of comparative recent origin in Canada a form of it was in operation in England as early as the 1800's. At that time the service was provided the contension of the members to use whatever influence they could to impress on our present day young people the importance of education - importance not only to their own future, but of vital importance to Canada.

At the conclusion of Lion Bill's very interesting address, Lion Jim Doughty moved the motion of thanks An out of town visitor at the meeting was Mr. C. H. Linklater of Kincardine.

Of special interest to the members to use whatever influence they could to impress on our present day young people the importance of education - importance not only to their own future, but of vital importance to Canada.

LAST SATURDAY I was taken to Asakusa, I you cannot use these to play shuttle-cock be breathing in the smoke and touching it to their heads for good health. From here they would well stood a foreigner passing out folders to passers by and saying "You don't know what Christmas is, until you know Christ."

The path was dotted here and there with beggars dressed in white cotton pants and shirts. They are all incapacitated in some way with artificial limbs — from the last war. Too you may see a mother with a child in arms sitting on the ground waiting for money to be dropped in her cup. Then there was a child who came up to me with a piece of paper in her hand. She handed it to me and it said "I am deaf and dumb - please give me money." So Asakusa holds both the good and bad and it is a most interesting experience to spend a few hours there.

Each day I find that Japan gives only a smattering of life to the tourist but has so much to teach the resident who can talk and associate with Japanese people. Everything that is strange that the tourist doesn't have time to make these mysterious Orient. Things that were shocking and new to me in the first few months now have meaning and expression. And so it was with my recent trip to Asakusa, different facets of life
