FEAR OF DISFIGUREMENT LEADS TO MURDER - Dante Benzoni, 55, is shown at Farlow, N.J., after his arrest for the murder of his son, Daniel (right), 14. Benzoni, whose face is partially paralyzed, said he feared his son would go through life with a similar affliction. Daniel had a face made of plaster after a surgical operation when he was 9. Benzoni, whose wife died a year ago, fired two shots into his sleeping son's head, police said.
