THE MEASURE OF TRUE GREATNESS

The world has many standards by which it measures a man's greatness. Scholastic achievement, the development of particular abilities, success in business life. Elevation to a position of importance in political service or some outstanding athletic accomplishment, may also entitle a man to be called great. Success in military operations, elevates the status of a man, and even in religious circles, there is the constant danger that a man may be judged by the size of his congregation or the heights to which he has risen in the ecclesiastical heirarchy. Of course, all these qualities may have their place, nevertheless our Common measurements of importance and greatness are pronounced obsolete by Jesus Christ. It was the Master who set before His followers and before the world a new standard of greatness —

"Whosoever will be great among you shall be your minister: and whosoever would be the chief, shall be servant of all."

Such a standard turns our human measurements "up-side-down" and disturbs the complacency of our lives. However, as we turn the pages of history we discover that there is ample evidence to support the reality of Christ's definition of greatness. It has been reported that on one occasion Napoleon said: "Alexander and I both founded our empires on force. Jesus alone founded his on love, and to this day countless thousands would die for him." Love is the underlying motive of all true greatness.

The true measurement of greatness is not privilege and position but devotion. The sense of dedication and of service that we exercise. In the market place of life we may "spend" our talents - our abilities - upon many things. We can use them simply in exchange for material things, — money, possessions, power. Of course, there is nothing wrong with these things in themselves, for the New Testament teaches us that they are only a menace when they become the centre and dominating influence of our lives. Indeed, money, possessions and power can be blessings provided they are invested and used wisely. We can use these gifts to make the world a better place, to fulfil God's purposes. We can invest our abilities so that the lives of others may be made strong and healthy, enriched, and the source of countless blessings. In the market place of life, God gives each one of us an opportunity to "spend" ourselves, so that the world may become a better place and that we may serve Him and our fellow men.

"Day after day, in our own communities we meet such men and women of greatness; those who have discovered the true meanings of life and who spend themselves in the service of others. By investing the skill, their knowledge and themselves, new life is offered to their fellow men and the world is made a better place in which to live.

DR. JOHN BAILEY SPEAKER AT LIONS CLUB MEETING

One of the most interesting and informative addresses ever heard at the Jarvis Lions Club was given by Dr. John Bailey, F.R.C.P., on Monday night. Dr. Bailey is on the staff of the Hospital for Sick Children, at Toronto.

His address coincided with Health Week being observed across Canada and related to the progress in medicine and surgery being achieved through research at the Sick Children's Hospital. He showed slides to illustrate the work carried on in the laboratories and some of the cases successfully treated and now living and actively moving to the viewers.

Dr. Bailey's work relates to research and the out-patient's clinic operated in connection with the hospital. He gave a clear picture of the history of the Hospital since it's inception in 1875 and related the inspiration and work of the late Dr. Alan Brown, physician-in-chief from 1917 to 1951.

The speaker was introduced by Lion Bill Snowden who stated that he had graduated from the University of Toronto in 1947 and had spent five years in internship at Winnipeg and the Toronto General Hospital before going on staff at Sick Children. Lion Jack Cooke expressed the appreciation of the Club to Dr. Bailey. The speaker said he regarded it as an honor to be asked to return to his home town as the speaker at the Lions Club meeting.

The third game of the first round of the O.R.H.A. Intermediate "A" play-offs takes place at Uxbridge tonight when both Jarvis and Brooklyn will be attempting to go ahead in the best of five series. Each team has one win, both won in the visitors ballwacks and if this is any omen, Jarvis should get the jump on their rough and tough opposition tonight.

The fourth game of the series is scheduled for the Port Dover Arena on Monday night. Regardless of who wins tonights game, there is sure to be a crowd at Port Dover on Monday night when the local strategists say the series will be wound up.

Jarvis seemed to have a comparatively easy time balancing the series when they played the second game at Whitby last Wednesday. They took a ten to five decision in a game that produced a total of 26 penalties and could easily have been a duplicate of the Toronto-Chicago fiasco last Saturday night.

The difference from the first game of the series was said to be the sharp play of netminder Dick Arnott who appeared in a solid performance at Whitby. Bill Nixon again took first star honors with two goals to his credit and singletons went to Bob Nixon, Jack Nixon, Johnny Edwards Sonny Lowe, Ron Mayor, Harold Nixon and Don Mitchell.

Among those attending the funeral of the late Dr. E. M. Jones were Dr. and Mrs. Lockner and Mrs. J. A. Fleming of Kitchener.

A Tribute

Dr. E. M. Jones

THE DOCTOR IS DEAD. The sad news cast a pall of gloom over the entire community when it was learned that Dr. Earl McConnell Jones had passed away late Saturday evening.

He was the local Doctor who had carried on the practice of his profession in this rural community for 35 years. He held strong convictions as to the role of the Country Doctor and these principles he applied throughout his career. It would be difficult to find a home in Jarvis and over a wide area surrounding the Village that has not felt his presence. He was called upon, not only to heal, but to guide and advise in many instances and in this role he became one upon whom many depended in time of difficulty and stress.

It goes without saying that he will be sorely missed. It is not likely the community will ever again be served so unselfishly by a practicing physician. It could be said that he had been on call in this community day and night for the last 35 years. It was rare, indeed, that he enjoyed a night of undisturbed slumber and it must be said that the pace he set for himself must have been a factor in his untimely passing.

The beautiful floral tributes, in such profusion, along with the large attendance at the burial service on Tuesday testifies in itself the esteem in which he was held. The community tried to express appreciation for his faithfulness over the years, but deeper still will be the memories of hundreds who have been the benefactors of his devotion to the profession to which he gave his life.

OBITUARIES

BELOVED PHYSICIAN DIES PRACTICED HERE FOR 35 YEARS

This community was shocked to learn of the passing of Dr. Earl M. Jones, on Saturday, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Hamilton where he had been a patient for several weeks. While his condition was reported as serious, no one permitted the thought he would not return to his practice here where he had carried on his profession for thirty-five years. He was in his Sixty-third year.

Dr. Jones was a graduate of the University of Toronto and he served his internship at the General Hospital in Hamilton. He practiced for a year at Mildmay before coming to Jarvis in 1926 to begin an association that endeared him to hundreds of citizens who came to depend upon his talents in the realm of healing. He was basically a country Doctor, the type of which is fast disappearing. No matter when he was called, he was ready to attend the sick. His first office in Jarvis was on Talbot Street and he later acquired the former Coleman property on Main St. where he has maintained his office for many years.

He was a son of the late John Jones and Lillian Earl, of Hamilton.

He was born at Athens but the family moved to Hamilton while he was in his youth and he attended school there and continued on to the University of Toronto where he obtained his medical degree.

While a Baptist by faith, he was a faithful adherent of Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, throughout his residence here. Fraternally he was a member of King Solomon Lodge, No. 329, A.F.&A.M., Jarvis. While his work permitted little time for extra-curricular activities, he was a keen sports enthusiast in his younger days and participated in local activities.

Besides his wife, the former Gladys M. Duncan, of Hamilton, to whom goes the sincere sympathy of the entire community, he leaves one daughter, Sandra (Mrs. Earl Smith) of Hagersville, and two grandchildren. He also leaves two brothers, Allan Jones of Burlington and Theron Jones of Acton; two sisters, Doreen (Mrs McKenzie) of Galt and Margaret (Mrs. J. Bennet) of Toronto.

The remains rested at the Miller Funeral Home, in Caledonia, until noon on Tuesday when the body was brought to Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, where service was held at 2. P.M. Rev. Howard Smith conducted the service and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

The casket-bearers were: Dr. Leslie Spratt, Superintendent of the Sir Adam Beck Memorial Sanitarium London, Dr. J.C. Powell and Dr. R. Hyde, of Hagersville, Bryce Jones of Caledonia, Edgar Jones, of Cayuga and Reeve Ernest Craddock of Jarvis.

FIREMEN ENJOY BANQUET

On Thursday night of last week, March 9th, the Jarvis Volunteer Firemen entertained their wives at the annual banquet held at the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Following a delicious banquet served by the members of the local Rebekah Lodge, President Warren Fleming as master of ceremonies, called on the Fire Chief George W. Walker, Assistant Chief W. J. Elliott and several others for a few words.

Plans were made for the trip to be taken this summer. Mrs. Peter Banks, of Hamilton, expressed her appreciation for the invitation to attend the annual banquet.

The tables were then cleared and Mr. Ernest Craddock entertained the gathering for the balance of the evening by showing his wonderful collection of pictures taken on his trip to Alaska last summer. These present had their thoughts expressed by Mr. Allan Awde to Mr. Craddock for his interesting pictures and descriptive commentary.

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of the late Marshall Lindsay extend their sincere thanks and appreciation for flowers, cards and the many other acts of kindness received at the time of their recent bereavement. 1TF
