NOT FEAR BUT FAITH

Once again we approach Remembrance Day our thoughts dwell on the moments upon those who gave all that we might live, and are disturbed by the gathering clouds of conflict. Few of us realize that we are living in dangerous times, when the possibility of retaliation and the end of the world easily become a reality. It is not surprising therefore, that many people talking in the terms of their fears. Several times in the past week, people have told me that some of the younger members of their family are very much fearful about the future, and in their reading as well as listening to the radio and television, the threat of radiation and the hazards of the nuclear age are very strong fear.

It would be inhuman if that instinct of nature to danger were not present, but in our present day the need for faith and hope is greater. For two thousand years the Christian message has been the hope and wide, until across the gospel of Jesus Christ has found. In this our own land, people claim our way of life as that of christianity, and most of us, whether ardent church goers or not, would be incensed were it suggested that we were unbelievers. But just what do we believe?

Now is the time to make the decision, whether we believe in a God who lives and reigns, and in whose hands we may safely trust ourselves and all we love. Or whether christianity is a myth, and behind the laws of the universe there are no Creator's hands and wisdom. Before we make this decision however, let us recall that the ways of God have triumphed over Empires and Dictators for almost two thousand years and that in the very camp of communism to-day, men are staking their lives on the ultimate victory of their faith.

Our children and our people must know the truth. The truth about the diabolical forces we oppose and the deadly weapons we wield. They must know the truth about the world we live in, but they must also know "the truth that makes them free." The truth of God's love and of God's power and His promise of victory and eternal life to all who BELIEVE!

WEDDING

SMITH — JACKSON

Molly Elizabeth Jackson Reg. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Jackson, Southampton, formerly of Nanticoke, and Larry Andrew Smith, son of Mr. Calvin Smith and the late Mrs. Smith, exchanged marriage vows, on October 21st, at Christ Church Nanticoke. The Rev. K. N. Bruton of Jarvis officiated. Mrs. Graydon Fields, organist, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Jack Marr, who sang "The Lords Prayer". "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" throughout the ceremony.

Mr. Jackson gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a floor length wedding gown of French peau de soie brocade. The bodice featured a deep scoop neckline and long lily-point sheath sleeves. The princess lines of the gown formed a front panel from which emerged triple pleats at either side forming an elegant bell shape. The main attraction was centred at the back where a bustle rosette was enhanced by a lovers knot. This was completed by a romantic chapel train. To add a final highlight to her wedding outfit, the bride wore a tiara halo headpiece of tiny seed pearls from which fell a French pure silk illusion finger tip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of Frenched white mums centered with a white orchid, bordered with ivy and satin leaves.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Wm. Hobbs Jr. of Jarvis, Miss Nancy Henning and Miss Margaret Henderson, both of London. All were gowned alike in Coppertone French Crystalette streetlength dresses with matching accessories. MANY RECORDS BROKEN AT HALDIMAND PLOWING MATCH

In spite of threatening skies and hard soil the 33rd Annual Plowing Match under the auspices of the Haldimand Association was highly successful. There were 71 entries in the various classes which is the largest number to be recorded in recent years. One interesting feature was five entries in the Horse or Jointer Plowing Class. FARM BUSINESS IMPORTANT TOPIC

"What Farm Business Management Has Done For Me" and "Getting Started" are two very important topics to be discussed at a special meeting being held at the Rural Youth Centre on Wednesday evening, November 15th.

The first subject will be discussed by Bruce McBlain, a prominent farmer in Brant County and a member of the Brant County Farm Management Club. Mr. McBlain has discovered that farm business management has helped him in his daily farm activities and has increased his net farm income. He will be describing how this has come about.

Mr. Jack Clark, a well-known friend of the farmer will center his remarks around the topic "Getting Started". Mr. Clark has long been associated with farm management in Ontario and is thoroughly familiar with the many problems involved.

This should be a very important meeting for Haldimand farmers and will be open to all who may be interested. It is scheduled to start at 8.00 o'clock in the evening and is co-sponsored by the Haldimand Federation of Agriculture and the Haldimand Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Mark this date on your calendar now.

MANY HUNTERS IN NORTHLAND

There has been quite an exodus this week of local hunters who are making their annual expedition to the hunting camps of Northern Ontario.

These include A. B. Lumdy, Dr. W. E. Austin, Bruce Meehan, Bob Nixon, Tom Saunders, Don Phibbs, Cordon Miller, Ernie Craddock, Bruce Miller and, no doubt, there are many others

We understand the hunters at the Premier Camp on the French River are not planning on tying up a deer for Doc Austin to shoot this year, so he will likely return home empty handed.

HOW TO BOWL FIVE PINS

- By Bert Garside & Jim Hoult -

Chief Bowling Instructors
Double Diamond Advisory Council

Unlike contact sports, with their hard physical violence, bowling has no single hard-and-fast set of rules laid down to govern behavior on the lanes. The rules vary from place to place, but the essential ones are similar everywhere. They are just a matter of common sense and common courtesy.

The rules of etiquette for bowlers are designed so that the game is as pleasant as possible for everyone concerned.

Treat other bowlers the way you would expect them to treat you. Above all, remember that bowling is a sport — so be a sport. Play to win, of course, but keep in mind that good fellowship is the best reason for the game's existence. So, don't let the pressure of competition turn you into a bowling boor.

Here are some of the general rules of bowling we've culled from our years of experience with the Double Diamond Advisory Council.

1. If the person on the lane to your right has begun his approach, give him the right of way. Let him finish before beginning your approach.

2. Leave all the razzing and kidding at the score stand. Don't carry it into the approach.

3. Stay off the approach until it is your turn to bowl. After bowling, leave the approach immediately.

4. Don't "loft" the ball. Get your hand down to the lane, and roll it.

5. If you are losing, don't alibi.

6. If you are winning, don't brag.

7. Get set properly, but don't waste too much time with meaningless motions like shuffling your feet or juggling the ball.

8. Be ready to bowl as soon as your turn comes up.

9. Before getting on the approach make sure there is nothing on your shoes that will mar the wood.

10. Respect the foul line, and stay behind it at all times.

11. Don't offer advice to other bowlers, unless they ask for it.
