Christian Viewpoint

By "Simon"

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

When tragedy casts its shadow over a community, many questions arise in the minds of men. The problem of suffering and death are as old as man himself, and as yet no satisfying answer can be given. Some would speak of it as the judgment of God, but would we as fathers, punish our children thus? Others would say it is a matter of fate, destiny or bad luck, but do intelligent people really believe that? The Bible teaches that evil in any form is alien to the love and purpose of God and that against this power He fights endlessly. Was it not Jesus, the perfect revelation of God, who came saying—"If an angel comes and tells you to love your neighbor, you must love him and have it more abundantly?"

Many would accuse God of being the author of all these trials and tribulations common to life, but it is inconceivable that He who cares for the sparrow, should thus treat the crowning glory of His handiwork—man.

The sum evidence of the scriptures is that from the beginning of time, God has been with His people, sharing with them the adversities and perils of their earthly pilgrimage, and through His great goodness, He has brought forth a new people.

During this season of Lent we are reminded once again of what seemed to be the greatest tragedy and denial of God's love the world has ever known—the Cross. There innocence, love and beauty were done to death. He that went about doing good was crucified. A life full of promise seemingly cut off. Only after the Easter Morning, came the revelation of God's great love and power, when one and for all, that which sought to destroy men by its power—death—was itself overcome. Out of the Cross came hope, from one as good as dead, life.

Through the trials of life, no ready answer can be advanced, we can only wait for the revelation of God's power, which alone can turn tragedy into glory. For us, it is to set our minds upon the things eternal, knowing that through Jesus Christ, victory can be ours, and that nothing can separate us from the Father's love.

Job could not explain the reason for his troubles. Friends accused him of many sins, but he was a man of faith who dared walk humbly with his God. He was spending a few days visiting friends and relatives in the district.

Several members of the Jarvis Women's Institute attended the Art Exhibit and Tea at the Hagersville High School on Saturday afternoon and evening. This was in aid of the Hospital Building Fund and we understand was a financial success.

BIRTH

WEAVER TO Mr. and Mrs. Milton WEAVER of R. 1 Nanticoke, on Monday, March 5, 1962, a daughter, at Beckliffe Private Hospital, Hagersville.

Children of the Church met in Knox Presbyterian Church basement during the church hour on Sunday, March 4.

Linda Mitchell led in opening prayer. Ray Miller read the scripture from Matthew 22: 37-40. The hymn "God Is the Loving Father" was sung with Barbara Miller at the piano. The chapter "The Excursion" was read from the book "Three Children of Chile" after which a discussion was held on how to be a good Christian. Gary MacKenzie took up collection. A fun story "A Trip To The Moon" was read with the children filling in key words. A work period followed.

The meeting closed with prayer by Debbie Williamson.

MISS Helen Miller entertained the Knox Church Women's Groups at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The Ladies Aid convened at 8 P.M. with Mrs. Cora McKenzie in the chair. Plans were made for the St. Patrick's Supper and it was decided to again send out supper.

Following this group, Mrs. Elinor Hammond and Mrs. Orli Williamson took charge of the W.M.S. Mrs.
