CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Rae Sharpe, formerly of Jarvis, was Ninety years young on March 14th. She was honoured at her home in Hamilton by her family who planned a birthday surprise on Sunday afternoon when more than one hundred guests offered felicitations. Answering the door were two great grandchildren Mary Rowles and Margaret Armstrong gowned in green velvet and wearing maid's aprons. Mrs. Ruby Pettit, daughter of Mrs. Sharpe and Elinor Armstrong and Mary Rowles, granddaughters welcomed the guests.

Mrs. J. S. Burwash of Jarvis, who is Mrs. Sharpe's sister poured teafor the first hour and later helped to receive.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS MEET*

of Livingston United Church, Hamilton, which he served for many years as Treasurer. A Mason, he was a Past Master of Acacia Lodge and a member of Argyle Bowling Club and the Hamilton District Purchasing Association.

He is survived by four sisters: Mrs. John A. Bannister, Mrs. Hugh Saunders, Mrs. Hug

Past Noble Grands Club met at the Lodge Room on February 28 with twelve members present. Meeting opened with "Blessed Be The Tie", followed by the Lord's Prayer. Sister Mary Dosser read the scripture (continued on page eignt)

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who so with cards, followers and gifts on our Anniversary, flowers and gifts on our Anniversary, and also the many get-well cards.
