

With the weather changing from the frigid temperatures of winter to the balmy air of spring, it would seem like a good time to take a leisurely walk along the creek and observe nature in all its wonder. Better still, it would be a good time to be perusing seed catalogues and making plans for a garden and flower beds.

Instead of these peaceful pursuits we find life altogether too demanding in other directions and it all makes one wonder how foolish the human animal can be. We suppose we are just like all the rest when we find ourselves running around in all directions trying to keep pace with the modern demands of every day living. Some say life in the country is peaceful. We often wish we could find it that way.

We'll admit, however, that in a few weeks we hope to get back on an even keel. Hospitals, weddings, Minstrel shows along with the imminent threat of an election has our mind in a whirl. We're not getting too much help either from our political opponents which includes Sam Morris and Bruce Shaddler. In this connection we disassociate ourselves completely from a story which appeared in last week's issue of the Maple Leaf. Sam attributed words to us that were never spoken. We go on record right now as saying that John Diefenbaker is a shoo-in in the next election and we have no fear whatsoever of any other outcome. Sam probably dreamed that story up while in anticipation of his current trip to the Kentucky hills where he hopes up for his annual retreat. We wouldn't suggest that Sam has any really bad habits but we have often wondered why he holidays in an area where the Reverend's seem to keep busy.

Our friend Bruce Shaddler has been giving us plenty of advice on how the Father of the Bride-should conduct himself. On his return home from a recent visit when he explained the protocol of such events he found himself in the reach of the long arm of the law. Notwithstanding the fact he engaged the services of Judy LaMarsh to defend his case in the Cayuga Law Courts, he discovered that no power of persuasion could influence the Court Officers from carrying out their duty in keeping with the standards and general integrity of the governing forces of the land.

The Minstrel show directors have also been breathing down our neck for the past few weeks and we hope that within another few days we will feel the relief from this annual duty for the cause of something or other. Being a serious minded individual we find it hard this year to get to the spirit of Minstrel Shows. However, we must remind ourselves that we are not expected to be funny in this show, so shall try to govern ourselves accordingly.

The Hospital business is going along in fine shape and for this we owe our thanks to hundreds of West Haldimand people for whom we have the greatest affection and respect. If

HALDIMAND C.A.S. BOARD MEETING

The March meeting of Haldimand County C.A.S. was held in the Court House on Thursday evening March 15th.

Local Director, Richard Priestman reported that more than 5,000 adoptions had been completed in Ontario during 1961. He held a discussion on the relative value of private placement versus institutional care for retarded children and on the use of the Local Mental Health Clinic as opposed to the larger centre Mental Examinations.

It was urged that the use of local clinics be tried first as they were quite often all that was needed—more difficult cases should then be referred to the larger clinic. The private placement plan was assessed to be ideal in some cases and when the ideal foster parents could be found. Discussion followed regarding "Opportunity Classes". This was left for study by the policy committee which will meet on March 21st.

Mr. Priestman also reported on the Workshop he had recently attended at McMaster University under the Children's Institutional Division of the Ontario Welfare Council when better co-ordination of existing facilities was urged.

The Annual Meeting was slated for April 26th in Trinity United Church, Fisherville.

Being a serious minded individual we find it hard this year to get to the spirit of Minstrel Shows. However, we must remind ourselves that we are not expected to be funny in this show, so shall try to govern ourselves accordingly.

CUBS AND SCOUTS

March 14th was another big night for "B" Pack. The Cubs and parents of our new chums gathered at the Scout Hall at 7 O'clock. Akela called her Cubs into the rock circle where they were to be initiated.

After the investiture ceremony the new Cubs took part in the Grand Howl. After Grand Howl we had an investiture ceremony when they invested Teddy Reynolds, David Mitchell and Terry Dosses. After which all the Cubs took part in the Grand Howl. At 7:30 the Cubs went into their cubs' instruction on Star Work. At 7:45 there was a fast game. Again Baloo was flashing her camera for pictures for our Log Book. At 7:50 Akela called the Cubs into their Rock Circle where she presented Cub Bill Ross with his team player's badge and Cub Roger Fields with his first Star. Congratulations, Cubs, keep on working. We were pleased to see the new Cubs parents in attendance and hope they will come often and help with good hunting until next week.

Goodbye and good hunting until next week.
