

When Otis Hill brought that fine featured Buck in for our inspection last Monday morning we knew that there was not one ounce of meat lost in the kill. The jugular had been neatly severed which is proof there had been no suffering for the victim of man's quest for meat. O. B. no doubt in this method. It was at Limestone Lake, about twenty years ago, at Turkey-Wiley's Camp. It was, in fact, our demonstration of accuracy on that occasion that resulted in the name we have since carried - "The name-eyed Editor". Indeed our most recent expedition to the Northwoods has inclined some of our friends to apply the appellation "Shoot The Bull" Miller, but the evidence has been altogether too tasty for many to question the results.

When Ray Bowyer took off with us a couple of weeks ago, we had not been the first time he ever travelled by land, sea and air to butcher a carcase. He has probably applied his knowledge and skill in the preparation of meat more than any other in-

It seems such a long time ago, When I said "Number please" and you answered "Hello". That's what I miss, and I want you to know - On November Fifteenth, afternoon and night, I'll be at home and cordially invite You and your friends who would take delight in coming to see My arrangement of gifts for the Christmas spree. I'll be glad to answer and give details Of my product Beauty Counsellor retails. Just come and look and say "Hello". No obligation, but my object is sales.

HOW MANY WENT TO A BANK FIRST?

Probably most of them / Experienced travellers have learned that a chartered bank can add greatly to the enjoyment and contentment of travelling. Here you can get answers to currency questions, leave valuables in safekeeping, obtain letters of introduction. Travellers Cheques are ideal for day-to-day expenses. For larger sums, you may prefer a Letter of Credit, or arrange to have funds forwarded to you / A chartered bank has many ways of caring for your travel needs. See your local bank before you go.
