We mentioned in our last column that we were contemplating a tour of the Trans-Canada Highway and operation at Kapuskasing. of the Trans-Canada Highway and might have something to say about it in this and succeeding issues. Well, we made the tour which covered a bout 2,700 miles of the wonderful highways of Ontario, the architectural responsibility for which, rested for a time with none other than James N. Allan who was then Minister of Highways for this great Province of Ontario. And, if Sam Morris doesn't agree that he has been one of the most outstanding Ministers of the Crown that Ontario has ever seen, he is in for a lot of argument from this corner.

After having travelled this distance within the Province of Ontario we want to tell you that we have every reason to be proud of the road system that makes it possible to travel such a vast distance in such a short space of time. The Trans-Canada Highway traverses Ontario by two routes. The first one takes you via the north shore of Lake Superior and the other over the hump, namely, via North Bay. Cochrane, Hearst, etc.
