RAMBLING ROWS

Thou, O Lord, hast made me Thy spiritual shepherd of the flock of the elect. May Thy will be done in me as my chief concern. Fill my heart with a shepherd's love for each one. Give me the knowledge of how to serve them spiritually in their varied circumstances. O Lord help me to be faithful in study, unflinching in prayer, blameless in living, and unselfish in service, that I may be Thy prophet to the confused, and may direct hearts and minds into Thy presence. Grant me patience to work out the full potential of this opportunity, faith in the leadership of this Congregation, and an evangelistic spirit to seek the lost and the lost again, and to know the issues of this day.

Few Changes In Walpole Election Verdicts

EDWARD MONTAGUE RETURNED AS REEVE WITH A SMALL MAJORITY OF VOTES

The verdict of the Walpole Electors on Monday produced only one change in the personnel of the council and no change was made in the School Board. Edward Montague, former Deputy-Reeve, lost out in his bid for the Reeve ship by a narrow margin. Edward Montague was re-elected for the third term by a vote of 64 to 59. Harold Niek, making his first bid for council seat, was elected as Deputy Reeve. The following is a breakdown of the vote in the eight subdivisions:

WALPOLE	Nanticoke	Orange	Spring	Garnet	Selkirk	TOTAL
REEVE	56	42	104	62	76	440
DEPUTY REEVE	56	42	104	62	76	440

MRS. W. J. BAILEY

Mrs. W. J. Bailey suffered a painful injury late Friday afternoon when she was struck by a car on Main Street in Jarvis. She was rushed to the North York General Hospital where it was found she had a broken pelvis. The driver of the car was Stanley Bird of Jarvis who was proceeding northward on Main Street. A new drilled well and water system had been provided recently, which was approved by the department of health at that time. The principal reported that the test was made on or about October 28 which proved satisfactory.
