

RECORD WILL NOT BE PUBLISHED NEXT WEEK

The problems involved in publishing a paper with the publication date falling on Christmas Day has caused us to decide to suspend publication next week. It is our intention to issue a paper on Monday, December 30th, prior to the New Year's Holiday. This issue will be available for greetings to those advertisers who may wish to use this medium for that purpose.

We would request that all advertising for this issue be in our hands no later than Friday, December 27th.

BRANT-HALDIMAND M.P. EXPRESSES VIEWS ON CLOSING OF CAMP

The following is the text of the remarks by Larry Pennell, M.P. for Brant-Haldimand in the House of Commons on December 6th, with respect to the announced closing of the Hagersville army camp. As a festival of Nativity Christmas is much more than a fairy story, heart-woven, dream upon, more than a figment of fancy, tender and lovely, fragrant with old memories, enshrined in the love and wonder of childhood. Christmas is more than a day of make-believe pulling at the strings of our hearts, with the tug of playtime Christmas is more than its trappings, Back of the gift and the receiver, Back of the tinsel and trivia of the season is something as substantial as the unspoken word and the unspoken song and the inexpressible longing of the heart - - - that something is our longing for myrtle union with God, for some assurance that we are not alien and strangers in this world but that there is a divine Father and we are his children.

Yule Festivities Reflected in Hydro's "Magic Mirror"

Round-the-clock Yuletide festivities of some six million people as to the use of electricity in southern and northeastern Ontario are reflected in a "magic mirror" in the room shown in this picture.

Located in Ontario Hydro's Richview transformer station on Highway No. 27, northwest of Metropolitan Toronto, this room is virtually a key nerve centre in the Commission's East System power network. In this world of electronics, meters and switches, ever-vigilant supervisors, working in shifts, maintain a fully adequate supply of power to meet all demands at any hour of the day or night. One of the meters under close observation mirrors a continuous record of the demand for 60-cycle power. As this record unfolds in graphic form, these experienced supervisors can readily interpret many of the essential roles electricity is playing in "life, living and the pursuit of happiness" at Christmas as compared with a normal working day. By "reading between the lines" on the graph,
