COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY
The annual Community Fund Drive got underway on Monday, May 13th, at the Jarvis Community Hall. The canvassers are hopeful of completing their rounds as quickly as possible. Their task can be made much easier if they have the full cooperation of all citizens. Everyone is urged to be ready when the canvasser calls. It is frustrating to those who volunteer for this work to have to make call-backs to get the job done. Everyone will appreciate the efforts of the Community Fund Campaign in the elimination of the numerous appeals throughout the year and those who understand the work certainly deserve every co-operation the public, generally, can give. Mrs. R. A. Miller is Campaign Manager and any questions relative to the campaign should be directed to her. The Jarvis Women's Institute got in on the ground floor with the first donation of $25.00 received by the Campaign Manager on Monday and Mrs. P. W. Reichel finished her collection on Tuesday. Mr. Fred Fish, President, has lined up the following canvassers for the Village of Jarvis: Mrs. F. W. Reichel, Mrs. Evelyn Higgins, Mrs. Don Howden, Mrs. Merle Elliot, Mrs. James Dushway, Miss Helen Miller, Mrs. Peg Leatherdale, Mosera, Harold Johnson, Charles Gowen, George Walker, Bert Williamson, and Ed Field. The Rural areas have been organized by Mrs. R. A. Miller, Campaign Manager and the Areas will be canvassed under the following headings: Jarvis Women's Institute will have the areas East, West and North with Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Church and Mrs. Earl Mann, Mrs. W. C. Craddock and Mrs. Corn McKenzie and Mrs. Ross Dossier covering the ground. Erie District is captained by Mrs. Leo Montague. Vareney—by the Vareney Women's Institute, Sandusk—by Sanduk Women's Institute, Lamba Corners—by Lamba Corners Womens Institute, Nanticoke—Polling Division No. 1 by the Nanticoke Foresters Lodge. Names of all canvassers and donors will be published in the Jarvis Record until the campaign is completed. While the objective of $2600. was not quite met last year we hope to go over the top this year. Please try for the goal. This means everyone. MRS. F. W. REICHEL

JAMES DOUGHTY ELECTED HEAD JARVIS LIONS CLUB
