There have been many suc- cessful Victoria Day celebra- tions in Jarvis over the past 15 years but never before has such a large crowd partici- pated in the festivities. The day was a smashing suc- cess in almost every respect, notwithstanding the downpour of rain throughout the previous evening and the threatening aspects of the weather early in the day.

The Lions Club committee had a tough decision to make on the morning of Victoria Day as to whether to postpone all events or to carry on and hope the weather would clear. The decision to carry on proved to be the right one.

Miss Joan Holland spent the holiday week end in London, the guest of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holland and Linda. Mrs. and Mrs. William Rau- werts and two sons of Holland are spending six months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rauwerts.

MR. AND MRS. WILLEM BELDMAN Mr. and Mrs. Willem Belldman, highly respected residents of Woodhouse Township, cele- brated their Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary on Saturday, May 18th. The gifts in this happy occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Belldman also have one son who resides in Eg- wick. Their daughter, Alice, passed away two years ago.

MR. AND MRS. WILLEM BELDMAN The anniversary occasion was marked by a reception in the Jarvis Community Hall on Saturday afternoon. In addition to the guests of the Belldman family more than one hundred friends called to pay their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Belldman. Later in the day a ban- quet was served to sixty guests on the occasion of their anni- versary and wishes for their many more years of good hap- piness.

AT THE CHURCHES Anglican Church Notes Rogation Sunday, which was held in the afternoon, was special prayers are offered for blessing on the crops and fish- eries. These prayers are accompanied by symbolic offerings of soil and fish. The service was held at Nanticoke and the Rev. George Field and Harry Evans were pre- sented by Messrs. E. Field and George Field. The service was held at Jarvis on Sunday, May 19th. The church was filled with people and the Rev. George Field was assisted by Messrs. R. Burt- on and Dorothy Saunders.
