

The accolades this week all belong to the Jarvis and District Drama Club. This generation may be all together too embracing and, perhaps the roses should be directed to the Director and the members of the cast. Suffice it to say that Art Bradford's play "The Man Within" could not possibly be presented with better characterization than was done by the local Drama Club cast.

The members of the cast, without exception, portrayed their parts with feeling and understanding. It is unusual to see a local play without some weak roles but in this instance there were none. Congratulations to Warren Keen, Jan Webber, Newt Marshall, Rev. C. N. Moore, Bill Allen, Lloyd and Liz Garner and Judy Wright, for a job well done. No doubt the members of the cast would be the first to pay tribute to the work of the Director, Kay Varga and the assistant Director, Fay Walker.

BOOKS—Precious and price less are the blessings which the books scatter around our daily paths. We walk, in imagination, with the noblest spirits, through the most sublime and enchanting regions—regions which, to all that is level in the forms and colours of the earth, "add the gleam, the light that never was on sea or land, the consecration of the poet's dream."

Without stirring from our firesides we may roam to the most remote regions of the earth, or soar into realms where Spenser's shapes of un- earthly beauty flock to meet us, where Milton's angels peal in our ears the Choral hymns of Paradise, Science, Art Literature, Philosophy—all that man has thought, all that man has done, — the experience that has been bought with the sufferings of a hundred generations — all are garnered up for us in the world of books (John Lubbock from USE OF LIFE).

SUCCESS—As necessity is the mother of invention, strong desire is the mother of attainment.

If you want a thing bad enough To go out and fight for it, Work day and night for it, Give up your time and your peace and your sleep for it, If only desire of it, Makes you quite mad enough Never to tire of it, Makes you hold all things tawdry and cheap for it, If life seems all empty and useless without it, And all that you scheme and you dream is about it, Fret for it, Plan for it, Lose all your terror of God or man for it, If you simply go after that thing that you want, With all your capacity, Faith, hope and confidence, stern pertinacity. If neither cold poverty, fam- ous sickness nor pain of body or brain Can turn you away from the thing that you want, If dogged and grim you be- siege and beset it, YOU'LL GET IT. (Berton Braley)

TOP APPRENTICES

VANCOUVER (CP)—Jerry Wong and William Piesga, both 21, of Vancouver, have been named North America's top plumbing and steamfitter apprentices. They topped appren- tices from Canada and the U-nited States in written and practical tests taken at Pur- due University, Lafayette Ind.

LEARN'S LESSON

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C. (CP)—Larry Hara, proprietor of Larry's Furniture in this town, learned a lesson the hard way when he sold a second hand cash register to Mrs. K. Blair this fall and then obli- ged the lady by removing the cash drawer for a moment so she could clean under it. Mrs. Blair
