Gordie Tapp and Pat Hervey are two of the cast of CBC-(TV's Country Hoedown who were in Germany to entertain Canadian Armed Forces as part of the overseas celebration of the 40th anniversary of the RCAF. The Country Hoedown was seen in Canada and was videotaped in a RCAF main-tenance hanger for Starfighter jets at Baden Soellingen. At was televised with the co-operation of the Sudwestfunk German TV network using their technical facilities and staff.

It is our thought that these people who impose taxes have chants about this ruling which no contact with the world we should be public. Of course not commentators. The fact is that most people not directly concerned with political matters in the United States are ready to climb on the bandwagon and brand the Republican Candidate as a warmonger, a backer of the Klu Klux Clan, a member of the John Birch Society and so on.

We wonder just how many people have any real basis for forming such an opinion.
