THE NEW YEAR

Anniversary is a new year, whether it be a Wedding Anniversary or a little hard to see now, but one thing he could do would be to improve the American image in Africa and Asia in spite of the millions of money and all the technical and personal aid the Americans have given, the people there have hated them. Perhaps it is because, although the British ruled them and exploited them, they knew where they stood where as they suspect that the Americans are hypocrites, trying to exploit them under the guise of doing good works. I do not think this is altogether true and I hope Johnson can change the picture in this New Year. As for the rulers in the Kremlin, no one yet knows what Krushchev's policy of friendly dealings with the West we shall be well satisfied.
