One of the things that delighted us particularly at the Victoria Day Celebration was to listen to the voice of Michael Fem. Our thoughts immediately went back to the days of Bobby Breen who delighted millions with his boyish soprano voice. Michael, likewise, must delight everyone who hears him. This was our first experience and we were thrilled. It always has thrilled us to see young people develop their talents, regardless of what field it may be in.

Information reaching us would tend to support our contention that any educational policy affecting this area, both at the elementary and secondary level, merits the most careful study and consideration. The ever increasing demands to provide educational facilities in keeping with present day requirements makes it imperative that expert advice be sought with a view of rounding out the educational needs at both levels. The move by the Government to expand the area of jurisdiction of school boards is in the right direction but in our opinion it does not go far enough nor fast enough. We discern the possibility that much thinking respecting education locally is determined by personalities and prejudices. Neither of these things should be allowed to determine policy that affects the future of our children—nor, indeed, the taxpayer.

Billed as the biggest ball game of the year the Jarvis Public School All-stars took on the Jarvis Senior Citizens (haha) in a challenge game last Friday afternoon. There should have been no question as to which team was superior but, as it turned out, the Public School students claimed the victory. The school yard was packed with enthusiastic spectators all of whom had been drawn to the scene by the public relations bally-hoo of the students.

The Senior Citizens team included such all-stars of the past as Don Duxbury, Bryce Linklater, Carl Jaques and Bob Miller. While we can't vouch for the past status, on the field of sport, of Rev. Bill Straw, we'd have to say he turned in a sparkling performance for the Senior Citizens. He not only claimed the first hit for his team but also the first run and in order to do this he out-maneuvered the sparkling young star, Robert Graham. Of course, ye editor restrained himself in the competition, but managed to drive in three runs on a sizzling two bagger to short left field.

The victim of the loss was the well known and highly respected coach of Jarvis Provincial Championship Hockey and Ball Teams over the years. While Gordon Miller performed commendably himself on the mound for the Senior Citizens he persisted in leaving Doc Aulin on first base despite the fact he dropped six easy lobs in a row that would have meant putouts. It soon became apparent they both belong to the same political party. Finally, however, Doc was benched and the Senior Citizens demonstrated their complete mastery of the situation. There may be a return game later in the season.

AT THE CHURCHES

STONE CHURCH EVENING AUXILIARY

The May meeting of Stone Church Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Lawson Campbell, with a large attendance and four visitors.

The President, Mrs. Earl Makey, opened with a prayer and then turned the program over to Mrs. Hubert Lint. May being the month for Mothers, she read a scripture, prepared by Miss Margaret Biggar.

Miss Martha Ann Lint played two pieces on her electric guitar, which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Wilfred Roth read a poem "Mother".

In place of our study book, Miss Margaret Biggar played a forty-five minute tape on teen-agers in school, being able to hear the professor and pupils talk will surely make the mothers a bit wiser, to understand the teen-agers of to-day and especially to keep them in faith of the church.

Roll call was responded on a proverb. Current business was taken up. The April meeting was read and adopted. Several letters were read, one from Camp Goforth. Mrs. Makey closed the meeting with all repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

After a pleasant social hour, Mrs. Lloyd Rutherford thanked the hostess and those who took part in the program, and the lunch convenor, Mrs. George Willis.

BALMORAL LADIES AUXILIARY

Mrs. Ken Bousfield brought the devotions when the Balmoral Ladies Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Howard Sloat in Simcoe.

Mrs. Bousfield chose the book of Psalms and pointed out that it was a poetic book and also a worship book, and book of the temple, also many verses for comfort, strength and most every need. Mrs. Wm. Person and Mrs. Howard Sloat and Mrs. Wm. McNeice led in prayer.

Officers for the coming year were elected: President— Mrs. Wm. Henderson; Vice President —Mrs. Wm. Person; Secretary —Mrs. Esther Pitt; Treasurer— Mrs. Peter Slote; Box Convener —Mrs. Walter Irwin; Press Reporter—Mrs. Raymond Clark.

Mrs. Irwin closed in prayer. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Donald Teal and Mrs. Wheeler.

The next meeting will be held on May 28th at the home of Mrs. Wm. McNeice.
