EDITOR PASSED SUDDENLY GORDON L. HALL Editor and Publisher of the Cayuga Advocate and Hagersville Press who passed away suddenly at his home in Cayuga on Friday last week.

CARDS OF THANKS I would like to thank all my friends and neighbors who came and all those who helped me in any way to make the Reunion a success in spite of the cold weather.

OUR LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE Our little red school house so stately and tall, Our pupils have gathered once more to recall their failures and triumphs so very hard won.

OUR LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE (continued) Many scholars of learning have passed through your doors since your early beginning nearly five score years ago.

OUR LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE (continued) All our love and respect for our little red school house so stately and tall.

NDUSK SCHOOL REUNION The 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Jarvis School is being celebrated on Friday evening, September 3, 1965.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" Sunday, August 29th, marked the closing of the chapter of the "Little Red Schoolhouse" at No. 2 Walpole (McGavin's) when the Reunion was held bringing together some 400 former pupils, teachers and their friends.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) A program under the Chairmanship of Mr. George Wood opened with a formal ceremony of the closing of the school when the school bell was rung at 2:30 P.M. calling the most recent pupils to the platform.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Former pupils, Mr. Howard Basindale, Parents, Mr. Harold Nie, Teachers, Mrs. Lucille Bartlett, Parents, Board Members, Mr. E. MacDonald, Present Board Member, Mr. Kenneth Bartlett, who had expressed the reveries that the ringing of the bell brought to mind.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Following the singing of the original hymn, "The Blessing of the School," a grade eight pupil sang a hymn.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) The history of the school was read by Mr. Arvil Nie of which former teachers and students were the platform and Mrs. Bessie (Smith) Burrows, Caledonia, a teacher in 1900, expressed her hope that "the new central school would turn out as good students in the future as the little red school had in the past."

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) "This year's pupils sang 'The Something About A Teacher' that fine fine, fine. Letters of best wishes were read by Mrs. Hedger from former teachers and pupils unable to be present.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Mr. A. H. MacLaughlin, a former teacher 88 years of age, in her letter remarked "I liked you and them and they in return did their best for me."

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Community singing led by Mr. Albert Sheppard, accompanied by Mrs. Sylvia Murphy, included "The more we get together," "School Days" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" was enjoyed by all who participated.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) A chorus, "Before We Go Away" of which some of the verses were composed by Kathleen Allen, Wendy and Cheryl Cook, expressed the sentiments of this year's pupils. "God Bless With You Till We Meet Again" concluded the program which was followed by an afternoon service from the Wesleyan Church, centered with red roses.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Former teachers that assisted in the planning were the Grace Garber, Mrs. Jane McConachie, Mrs. Ruth Pond, and Mrs. M. Harp.

CLOSING IN THE CHAPTER OF THE "LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE" (continued) Mrs. M. Harp gave an interesting service from the Wesleyan Church, centered with red roses.
