LARRY VOKES SCORES HAT TRICK IN IOOF WIN
Larry Vokes scored three straight goals in leading the Jarvis IOOF Bantams to a 5-2 win over the winless Onedia crew. Jimmy Howden scored two goals to account for the total goals in a fast, clean game that was not a penalty called. Onedia opened the scoring in a scramble around the IOOF goal by Howden scored minutes later to even the score from a fenceman Gary Dawson, to tie the score.
Vokes then scored his first goal for a 2-1 lead at half time. The score remained the same and it looked as if the Jarvis team had the game won when Onedia scored the score from perseverance, while the IOOF controlled the play throughout. This proved the old won until the last few minutes when Onedia scored the puck in behind the Onedia goaltender. Minutes later Gowan and Duxbury again set up Vokes on a breakaway which saw Larry barrel in on the Onedia goalie and fire a waist high shot into the net to complete his hat-trick. With time running out, the team all fired up, Jimmy Jacques and Rick Miller save Howden a good pass and net to end the scoring.
The line of Miller, Jacques, and Howden kept the opposition jumping with some fine offensive and defensive play, throughout the game.
Rick Reynolds played his usual fine game in goal, while although not pressed, made some good saves, while the defence cleared the puck quite well from their end zone.
Chas Montague was moved to the defence and Jim Duxbury moved to right wing. The old Vokes and Gowan, and both boys in fine jobs in their positions.
The line of B. Hazlett, J. Church, and Jerry Walker, Chris Montague, Don Anderson, and Roger Bartlett and John Linklater are improving with each game and prove a valuable asset next year.
