CANADIAN BROADCASTERS IN PUNJAB

The purpose of this day away from the students is to give the teachers a chance to pause and look at their profession through the eyes of others. They will also have an opportunity in the afternoon to exchange ideas on their particular subjects with other teachers in their field.

Mr. E. E. Goldsmith, registrar at Brock University, will speak to the assembled teachers about the growth of univer-

BBC broadcaster Charles Innes (with glasses) and program organizer Dan McCarthy speak to the children around the world in preparation of a 13-week series of radio network programming. The series was prepared with the co-operation of UNICEF and the United Nations Development Programme. The series will begin airing on Friday mornings on the CBC radio network.

Annual Congregational meetings of Wesley United Church, Jarvis, and Garnet United Churches were held on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, June 10-12, 1968, at the Wesleyan Hotel, Toronto, and presided over by the minister, F. C. Bayes who, in his message to the congregations, expressed the following:

"The year brought me encouragements," he said, "deserving repairs being affected in the church building and the completion of much needed vestibule and restroom accommodation at Garnet. The year was also marked by the fact that it had resulted in overall gain balances on hand. As the meeting concluded Mr. Bayes on behalf of the congregation at large, and himself, paid tribute to the many workers in the church and Sunday School and leaders in the work of the United Church Women's Society, the Young People's Union, the organist and members of the choir, had contributed faithfully to the church and helped to make the congregational spirit and atmosphere the encouraging experience which was enjoyed by the ladies of the United Church being reached in giving thanks to the donors of the Fund and to Benevolence. The new curriculum had been presented at the Sunday School at Jarvis, and one of the highlights of the program was the presentation of the new book by the first Carol Service held at Christmas, led by the choir of the church and the children. "In these outward things," the minister said, "we are to be reminded of the intangible spiritual concerns and loyalties they represent."

A tribute of silence was paid to those deceased during the year in the church by Hoover, Arthur Phillips, Martha Abraham, Henry Phillips, and the Smithers family. Harrop.

Mr. Bayces voiced similar sentiments in his address at the meeting of Garnet United Church at which J. W. Roulston was the guest speaker. He mentioned Roulston, Lloyd Bilton, Jim Ebert and Jack Phillips as the members of the church. Elected as stewards were: Mark Phillips, Emerson Phillips, Jack Phillips, and Arthur Phillips and Keith Phillips. Elected as ushers were: Tom Phillips, John Phillips, Cherry, Glen Bilton, David Smith, Harley Phillips, Ron Harrop, and John Phillips. Mr. Murchy was added to the Board of Trustees. Appointed officers were: J. W. Roulston, Ivan Parkinson and Mrs. Ralph Phillips. General treasurers were: J. W. Roulston and M. F. Munday. Treasurers, Mr. and and William Davidson were elected to the Wesley Guild for three years, and elected to the Committee of Stewards for three years. The new officers are: Hagan, Jack Marr and Thompson. Gary Hogue was elected for one year. He was elected as users were Stan-blundell and Ron Slater. The new officers of the Board of Directors are: Graham Bayes, Rob-bert Hoover, Robert J. Art Church. Gary Hogue was elected treasurer for three years. The reports of the organiza-tion showed a successful year's work and each with comfort-

PLAY IN HAGERSVILLE

More opened her to us on the evening of 18th with eighteen members attending.

It was decided that we will have a scrapbook containing photos and clippings etc. of the play.

presented by the club.

invitation to present the play "No Rhyme Nor Reason" in Hagersville in the near future.

Kay Varga very kindly invited us to her home for our next meeting on April 8th. Anyone at all interested in Drama will be most welcome.

The financial report was read and the meeting adjourned. A delicious lunch and lots of conversation topped off a most enjoyable evening.

If anyone has newspaper clippings, programs or pictures of any of the plays which we could use or copy for our scrapbook we would appreciate a call to Barb Thompson 587-2298.
