

Notwithstanding the fact that our son, only, is getting married next week, we have been able to concentrate our thoughts, to some degree, on the recent Cabinet Changes in Ottawa. We are generally in disagreement with the Press, but in this instance we'd have to agree with the London Free Press — the shuffle was of a minor nature.

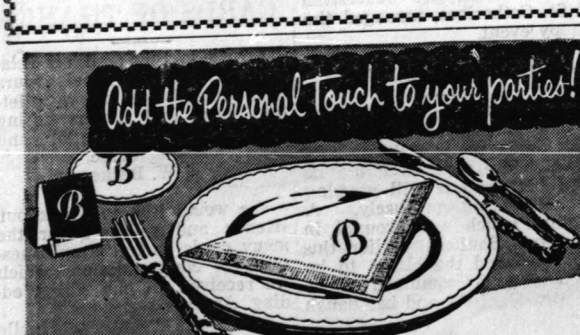

We'd also like to agree with the London Free Press that the one bright spot in the Hon. Prime Minister's realignment was the appointment of Larry T. Pennell to the post of Solicitor-General. It was also gratifying to see the Papers of influence throughout the Nation agreed with the Free Press' opinion that it was no less gratifying to hear the quote of opposition Leader John G. Diefenbaker with respect to the changes. He said: "The Prime Minister's decision to name Guy Excoffier as the new Minister of Justice to the post of President of the Privy Council, only added to the sordid, sorry mess of the Rivard affair."

On the other hand the former Prime Minister and Leader of the opposition was quick to add his praise to the appointment of Larry T. Pennell to the post of Solicitor-General. Said

CLOSER TO HOME

If the Devil ever laughs, it must be at hypocrites. They serve him so well and yet receive no wages. Recently we were amazed at the statement of a leading United Church Minister who was against legalizing sweatshops in Canada because "they would lead one to sin."

Why, may we ask, is he silent about this damnable sales tax and the collection thereof that is making people into cheats and thieves? Is that not sin?

Come to think of it — as I write, I wonder what I was begun to do. They stop to ask how the dollar was earned?

Another subject that drives me up the proverbial wall is this subject of birth control. Some say "We must have it." Some say "No, no, no, no!" But the As of the season, to my mind, is that M.P. who recently opposed it, by saying "We would soon be accepted by Quebec if we allowed legal birth control." Does he not realize that proper control is necessary if we are to keep the lower elements in check. The intelligent already exercises control — it's the damned mob that the control is most needed on! Keep on the way he outperforms by Quebec, but believe me that is more to be desired than to allow some of the stuff that is going on in the non-French provinces, and not be at hypocrites. One last thing, before I close this column. No that they (the so-called powers that be in government) have cut down the numerical strength of the Army, Navy and Air Force, we find that "only the best brains" can now get accepted!

Here is a very foolish thing indeed. Good men are needed everywhere true — there are a lot of fine young chaps, who through no fault of their own, have not the education to get into Army or Navy. Now, under the impossible circumstances that exist today, the door is really shut! This should not be.

There should be a certain strata of our armed services open at all times to those of the lower educational levels. I do not mean this in a derogatory sense, no, no, no! But a little mature thinking will disclose to you that these young men are shut off from the very source of employment that our country should encourage. Here is a great absorbing field that would take these boys in and do something with them. The way it is now — the streets are the answer and the jails the goal. I invite a consideration of this question by our representative Mr. Larry Pennell and all other men of good intention, at no matter how late.

One fact remains — We are our brother's keeper, believe me.

TRAVELLER'S CHECK

What has the ponderous pachyderm pictured above to do with CBC radio? Well, elephants are among the subjects discussed on the first to programs in the Traveller's Check series, which returned to CBC radio on Saturday, July 20th. The series features host Peter Reynolds guiding armchair tourists through foreign, and sometimes exotic, lands. The programs of July 20th and 21st deal with Ceylon and India, respectively, and elephants enter into Reynolds' colorful description of these countries.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

July 9, 1965

Dear Sir:

In a Boston cemetery an epitaph for an infant reads:

Seem I am so soon done for,
I wonder what I was begun to do.

This has been recurring in my mind because, as things have turned out, the time wasted my time, and the time of the other commissioners.

The taxpayer's money. The real problem was evident from the beginning, namely, that Time and Reader's Digest had an unfair advantage in Canada over genuine Canadian magazines.

After months of work and the issuance of a logical and fair report, the law now gives Time and Reader's Digest an even greater advantage than they had before. Henry Luce must be well content.

Both these publications bring into Canada without paying any customs duty all or nearly all of their editorial material. It is expensive and exclusive editorial material against which a Canadian magazine cannot compete.

Senator O'Leary, who was the chairman of the commission, has denounced the measure as passed in Parliament under the Liberal Government in these words: "If this house (the Senate) votes for this legislation it will be voting for the proposition that Washington has a right to interfere in a matter of purely Canadian concern."

I do not blame the Liberal Government any more than I blame the predecessor government headed by Mr. Diefenbaker. The real block toward solving this age-old problem in Canada came, according to Senator O'Leary and others, from Washington.
