DAWN OF NEW ERA

The Voyageur Highway (link ing Atikokan and Fort Frances) is bound to have great significance for Atikokan and beyond that, for northwestern Ontario...This should mark the start of a new era of well-being for Atikokan, for Fort Frances, for the Lakehead cities of Fort William and Port Arthur and for many other communities which will feel the effects of the road opening.

of State Secretary Lamontagne and given to the new Solicitor General. It is an open secret across the Country that Mr. Lamontagne and Centennial Commissioner John Fisher are hardly on speaking terms.

It is felt by some officials that a switch in Cabinet responsibility would help clear the air and give the commission a new verve in planning Canada's 100th anniversary celebration of Confederation in 1967.

All these things have happened to the member for BrantHaldimand in the month of July 1965 Although a membea of the House of Commons for only three years Mr. Pennell appears to have won the respect of all sides of the House.
