

The Federal Electoral boundaries for the voters of this area are likely to be changed—hope by the time another election rolls around. The recommended changes eliminate the riding of Brant-Haldimand, a riding that never should have come into being. It might be well to remember that it was born under political considerations and marked the end of a fine representative, Earl Catherswood, on the Federal scene. The proposed changes will now unite the main body of Haldimand with Norfolk County and, we hope, if the changes take place the Provincial boundaries will eventually coincide.

What made us think of this subject was a couple of comments in recent issues of the Port Dover Maple Leaf and the Simcoe Reformer. Sam

Morris, who has no political inclination whatsoever, is trying to explain the proposed political boundaries, said that "Although not specifically mentioned and not shown on the map, Jarvis must also be included in the new Haldimand-Norfolk riding." Now there is a subtle remark if we ever heard one. We recall so well Sam's emotional disturbance when the Provincial riding of Haldimand-Norfolk was set up. Sam cried for weeks because the riding was not called Norfolk-Haldimand. We tried, at that time, to instill into Sam's mind the benefits that would accrue to the poverty-stricken area of Norfolk by having an association with a stable community such as Haldimand. We pointed out to him that we were giving Norfolk the essential attributes for soil conservation at great expense to ourselves. Then in 1961 we gave Norfolk the benefits of legislative representation, in the person of the Hon. James N. Allan, who has restored the County of Norfolk in more ways than one.

Bruce Pearce, the Publisher of the Simcoe Reformer, shows his appreciation and understanding of the situation by recognizing, without reservation, the distinguished political representation given by Hon. James N. Allan. Bruce also made a statement last week in con-menting on the new Haldimand-Norfolk riding, that appeared to us to be pouring a little gasoline on the political fires in Haldimand and Norfolk. Said Bruce: "We could expect perhaps more interesting campaigns with such Haldimand politicians as Laird Miller of Jarvis to enliven the proceedings. The Port Dover Maple Leaf no doubt would welcome this situation." Now, just what is Bruce trying to stir up by that statement? Whatever the intent we appreciate the final

THIS SUMMER BE WATER WISE!

We'll have to discuss this with the present sitting member for Norfolk, Jack Ruxburgh. One thing we've got to do and that is 'shut up' Health Minister Judy LaMarsh. We can't have her going around the Country in a deliberate campaign to render Norfolk County productively impotent. We feel it is time for a strategy meeting of faithful citizens of the new political community to get together and map out plans. We'd suggest that when the obvious conclusion is reached that Bruce Stedder be commissioned at a $1 per year salary to deal with Miss LaMarsh. If he can't do the job, no one can."

We can't have her going around the Country in a deliberate campaign to render Norfolk County productively impotent. We feel it is time for a strategy meeting of faithful citizens of the new political community to get together and map out plans. We'd suggest that when the obvious conclusion is reached that Bruce Stedder be commissioned at a $1 per year salary to deal with Miss LaMarsh. If he can't do the job, no one can."

Actual we feel no pang of regret by this proposed wedding. One thing we've got to do and that is 'shut up' Health Minister Judy LaMarsh. We can't have her going around the Country in a deliberate campaign to render Norfolk County productively impotent. We feel it is time for a strategy meeting of faithful citizens of the new political community to get together and
