Dedicate Furnishings

Allan, with beautiful new furniture, many of the items being memorials. To set off these new furnishings the interior of the building has been entirely renovated—the walls have been redecorated and new floor covering and carpet have been laid. All this is the work of members of the congregation. The whole effect is very fine and St. John's now has one of the most beautiful interiors in the district.

The following memorials were dedicated: The Font, "In Loving Memory of William Haszard," presented by his wife, Caroline; The Altar, "In Loving Memory of H. Morris, Askinson," presented by his wife, Minnie, and family; The Lectern, "In Loving Memory of Mary Jane Dougherty," presented by her husband, Lorne and Catherine Wood, presented by their daughters, Margaret and Mary; The Credence Table, "In Loving Memory of Violet Evans," presented by her daughter, Myrtle, son-in-law, and family.

At the conclusion of the dedications, the Archdeacon offered prayer for "The Blessing of all work, and the installation of new and carpet, to the Glory of God."
