NEWS OF THE COUNTRYSIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Weaver, had as guests for several days, Mrs. Weaver's sisters, Mrs. Harvy Freed, Norristown, Pa., and ton Breeders.

Building on Monday afternoon. Mr Craig Werner went on a tirp on Tuesday with the Holstein Breeders.

What is going on this week.

Many things, as usual. The trouble with us is that we're still swinging with the Minstrel Show last week and find it difficult to concentrate. The fact that the Minstrel Show dread and the dedication of the producers year after year and the arduous responsibilities attached thereto. It's pleasant just to sit back and watch it but we sometimes wonder what could possibly motivate the continued loyalty, year after year, of some of those as sociated with the show. Guess they just like to see people happy.

President Johnson moved up a peg or two in our opinion by his address to congress on monday night. He delivered his speech with the usual emotion all twinge but the content was far more statesmanlike than annything we have ever heard him deliver before. It is a significant moment in history and we just hope President Johnson has the capacity to see it through.

The Jarvis Chevies are moving along toward another Championship. We shouldn't, but we will, make note of the feet.
