

snore until 5:30 and then surprised her with the announcement we were taking her out for dinner. After she had finished her curbside hot dog treat she announced it had been a fine Mother's Day. Guess that is what Mothers are like.

Yes Sir, the big Victoria Day Celebration is only about ten days off. We wonder if everything is in readiness for the big day? As we mentioned last week we'd be most grateful to receive some entries for the Amateur Show. Every year, it seems we get worrying about whether or not there will be a sufficient number of entries in this feature of the day and every year—so far—it has turned out that there are. We suppose, and hope, it will be the same this year. It's a great way for prospective talent to reduce the fear of appearing in public. Those who are thinking about it are urged to get their entries in early.

We've got to give first prize to George Walker for the development of his flower bed so early in the season. The row of tulips along George's drive is beautiful to behold. Obviously George has a green thumb.

Things change with the times. We can remember when the main street of Jarvis was one of the most beautiful residential areas in any town in the Province of Ontario. At that time a twenty-foot roadway was adequate to handle all traffic. Now the number of vehicles on the road has increased local residents to park their cars on the boulevards with the result they now look like plowed fields in the soft weather. Notwithstanding how regrettable this is it is doubtful if anything can be done to reverse the situation. The only hope for a renewal of the once beautiful main street is, it seems to us, to get waterworks and sewers installed and then have the main thoroughfare completely rebuilt to a standard we can be proud of.

We thoroughly enjoyed an address by George Bramhill on Monday night. Nothing can take the place of experience. George Bramhill began his career in Agriculture back in 1915 and over the years he has learned a great deal about people. It is most gratifying he is now to who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans of Natick, Ontario, Monday as the guest of Mrs. Lillie Miller.

Several visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Saunders and children of Burlington.
