

4-H NOTES

JARVIS "HICKS" 4-H CLUB

The third meeting of the Jarvis "Hicks" 4-H Club was held on October 23, 1965 at 1:30 P.M. at the home of Cheryl Jaques. There were ten girls and two leaders present. At this meeting we had the pleasure of our new Home Economist "Miss Baldwin" attending. She guided and helped us throughout the meeting.

We opened the meeting with the 4-H pledge. Shirley Slater read the minutes of the second meeting and Mary Lou Hooper read the minutes of the first meeting. The name of the club was changed to Jarvis "Hicks" 4-H Club. The roll call was taken and we were given a measure of success. We would be greatly surprised if Prime Minister Pearson ever again allows his better judgment to be unduly influenced by this group.

We are pleased to know that the so-called scientific judgments of Pollsters has been a set-back. We don't mind having Sam Morris telling us what is going to happen because his predictions just come floating off the top of his bald head and we know he doesn't know what he is talking about. These pollsters some how get on the idiot screen and the commentators listen to them as though they are oracles of great wisdom. This impression goes out to the public and who knows the extent of the influence that is peddled.

Every voter that went to the polls on Monday had been assured beforehand by the scientific determinations of the pollsters that the Liberal Party was going to emerge with a clear majority. They weren't just guessing - they thought - because as they were wont to point out their margin of error simply wouldn't allow any other result.

There are people in the country who favour majority Government and with good reason. It causes us to wonder just how many votes the Pollsters turned over to the Liberal Party last Monday because of their relationship with the so-called primary issue espoused by the Liberal Party. It could have been substantial.

Now that we are over the confusion of the past two months we can get back to the point where we were before the election was called. The results in Brant - Haldimand will bring a measure of satisfaction to the member, the Hon. L. T. Fennell who has the skirt" and "Transferring Pattern Markings to Skirt". Mrs. Harris discussed and gave us a note on "Stitching" and to the girls. All of the girls cut their skirts or jumpers out.

Alice and Ellen Montague served us a lovely snack.

LAMB'S CORNERS 4-H CLUB

The fourth meeting of the Lamb's Corners 4-H Club was held on Friday, November 5th at the home of Mrs. Howard Fields. The meeting was opened with O Canada and the 4-H Pledge. Roll call was given and we separated into groups with the help of Mrs. Howard Fields and Mrs. Howard Dennis. Mrs. Howard Fields completed this Mrs. Field served us a delicious lunch. Upon receiving our material. Upon receiving our material. Upon receiving our material.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Janet and Linda Church, October 31, 1965 at 1:30 P.M. Shirley Slater presided and Mrs. Howard Fields acted as secretary. The meeting was closed with God Save the Queen. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, November 3, at 9:30 A.M. Save the Queen. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, November 3, at 9:30 A.M. Save the Queen.

This Week

tal murder of Melverne Snary, 45, the man she was living with. Snary had been out drinking the couple had been out drinking.

Mrs. MacDonald was acquitted Feb. 2 of the non-capital murder of her common-law husband of 11 years, Angus Campbell, 45. Campbell had also been stabbed after a night's drinking.

REFORMS FOR YOUNG

Two reform measures for young citizens were announced last week by the provincial government.

Education Minister William Davis announced that, in future, 35 per cent of a student's Grade 10 marks would be from his work in school, and the remainder from the final examination.

This measure adopts, one year ahead of time, the recommendations of a reform committee on examinations.

The new Ontario Training Schools Act was also proclaimed last week. The main change is that no child may be admitted (rather than "committed," the old wording) to a reform school except by court order.

In court, it must be proved that the individual child would be better off at an Ontario Training School than elsewhere. Redistribution will surely come before another election is held.

Court Crooked Creek held an open November Social Evening with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Miller showing pictures of their trip to Saskatoon.

The Entertainment Committee had a few games, winners being Sister Dorothy Doughty, Brother Bob Hare, Sister Elizabeth Bassindale and a number of others. Tickets were sold on a mystery price, a lovely Angel Food Cake, which was won by Cora Hedges. Guests were present from Caroline Towers, Simcoe. President Alma Argo of Simcoe Court thanked Nanticoke for the invitation and for a lovely evening. Brother Doug Nunn thanked the Lady Court for an enjoyable evening. Vice President Sister Marion McKenzie thanked the guests for coming and also the entertainment and lunch committee.
