THE MUSEUM AGAIN

In my last article I described the Royal Ontario Museum. In this section are two huge murals, they are so big that if they were placed side by side they would nearly cover the back wall of the Convent Hall. They depict the figure of the Buddha surrounded by his disciples and the figure of the Buddha surrounded by his disciples, not copies. These are originals, not copies, taken from the wall of an ancient temple. It must have been a very difficult job to move them and set them up with not a crack or chip showing. The ancient Chinese had a cruel practice at one time when a great lord died his attendants were killed and buried with him so they could attend to his needs in the next world. That practice was abandoned because the Buddha substituted and in the museum are several sets of these figures, found in ancient tombs. You see the Buddha has had no interest in the prohibition of human sacrifice. He was a philosopher, however he had no idea of freedom of religion or of the rights of man. These elements the Buddha has given us. Both the ancient cultures have contributed valuable elements to our modern Western civilization. In fact they still show through in our society, for the most conflict between "Fundamentalists" and "Modernists" in religious circles is simply the clash between the above authoritarian view and the Greek idea of liberty of thought.

REPORTING FROM VICTORIA, B.C.

By Clyde Corbett

Ha! Ha! also HO! HO! HO! No, it's not Santa Claus already. It's just our way of commemorating with Laird and Rusty our victory over the old boy.

Jack Martin very ably presided as M.C. for the Banquet. Seated at the head table and introduced were: Lloyd Dennis, League Secretary, Gordon Keith, League Chairman, Oakes Thomas, O.A.S.A. Conventor, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ritchie, Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Caddock, Rev. and Mrs. G. Taylor-Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Norman "Pinky" Lewis. Others introduced to the gathering were: Jackie Payne, Bert Boy, James Crisp, Gale Keizer, Bert Pyrom, Secretary Treasurer of the Hagersville, Ted Montague, President of the Haldimand Norfolk League, Eddie O'Donnell, Empire; Sonny Louie, C.F.R.S. Radio. Most of the guests introduced paid their tribute to the success of the Team in including the sponsor, the Manager and Coach.

The Master of Ceremonies paid tribute to the ability of Johnny Edwards and his part in bringing this and previous championships to Jarvis. In reviewing his career as a pitcher he pointed out that he won his first Championship in 1952, the same trophy which he won this year (this year) in 1965. In 1952 he won the Junior "C" Championship. He played a year with Empire both those years. In 1953 he went to Hamilton in a circulation and these tickets offer those in attendance a chance to win a 20-lb. turkey fee.

Another fascinating place is the Egyptian Room. Though I was feeling rather tired when I got there. In this section is the body of a man who died about 3000 B.C. It is not a mummy, he lies there just as he was buried 5,000 years ago. The dry sands of Egypt kept it.
