

We are proud to live in the community where the best beef cattle in Canada are produced. The Jarvis Hereford Farms and the J. H. Atkinson farm have consistently taken top honours with their stock. Both herds have been built up by men who have contributed time and intelligence to this achievement. We wish we had a better understanding of China. The propaganda we read about China leaves the average Canadian thinking the China hordes are only biding their time before they gobble us all up. Of the few Chinamen we have known in our lifetime we always found them most respectful, courteous and kind. We have roomed through the areas in Toronto, Vancouver and San Francisco where they reside in a solid area, and frankly, we haven't developed one unkindly thought concerning the Chinese we have seen. It is a fact they are more law-abiding than any other race in Canada. They never rob anybody with violence; they never engage in shady business practices; they never get drunk and make nuisances of themselves in public. The children are never involved in juvenile delinquency; divorce is rare and furthermore—during the depression years—you never found a Chinaman asking for relief. The propaganda machine has got to go a lot faster than it has to get us to hate the Chinese.

Perhaps some of our readers observed the poetical contribution in last week's issue concerning us. ("They are such nice people you know.") We, the publisher at once, wish to express our appreciation to the author who, we feel quite certain, spent a lot of valuable time on the effort that could have been better spent more profitably in pumping out tanks. We also wish to acknowledge the monetary consideration forthcoming from the pen of Woodhouse. "They are such nice people, you know."

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Mary Todd, a 22-year-old nurse who earns $310 a month ($3,720 a year).

If Mary's earnings continue at this rate until she reaches age 65, she will receive a retirement pension of $77.50 a month from the Plan plus $75 a month Old Age Security.
Because Mary will have the opportunity of contributing for 43 years, she can have as many as 6 1/2 years of lower or no earnings and still be entitled to the same pension.

Actually, Mary's retirement pension will undoubtedly be more. This is because as Mary advances in her profession and her earnings increase so will her pension. Furthermore, to ensure that all benefits under the Plan maintain their value, they will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.
If Mary continues to work and becomes disabled at any time after 1970, she will be entitled to a disability pension of $83.12 a month until she reaches age 65. From then on she will receive her retirement pension as well as $75 a month from Old Age Security.

If Mary dies any time after 1967, having contributed until her death, a lump sum payment of $465 will be paid to her estate.
What will the Plan cost you?
If, like Mary, you are employed and have earnings of $3,720 spread evenly over the year, you will pay at the rate of $4.68 a month. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.
Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Canada, The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.
