September 16, 1966

Since leaving Jarvis on the morning of September 3, 1966 we find on this date (Sept. 16, 1966) we have travelled more than 5500 miles over the broad expanse of Canada and the United States. We still have more than a thousand miles to go before we see whether the streets of Jarvis have improved in our absence or not. Today we travelled from Livingston, Montana, to Jamestown, North Dakota, a distance of 640 miles. This has been the least exciting travelling day on our trip. We had previously travelled through North Dakota and had found several interesting places to stop. Since that trip three or four years ago a new inter-State Highway has been built and those places are no longer evident to the tourist It's a shame

Today, as yesterday, we found that the farmers and ranchers have to irrigate in order to produce their crops. Where irrigation is evident the alfalfa is luxuriant. They tell us that in this area it takes about twenty acres of grazing area to accommodate one beef critter and that it is unprofitable to ranch with much less than 5,000 head One would naturally wonder how any rancher could possibly have that much land. But, after driving through more than six hundred miles of the territory, with abodes few and far between it is much easier to understand. Meeting up with ranchers in restaurants and on the streets is a great delight Today, for example, we talked to a rancher in Miles City, Montana, and he at once recognized the Jarvis - Hereford Farms and Fred and Glen Reicheld. It's a small world

Having prepared a column on the experiences of this trip every day since our departure we are now beginning to ask ourself what possible interest this could be to the good folk who subscribe to our publication. It is perhaps unfair to subject you to this sort of material However we do have the satisfaction of the knowledge you do not have to read it. It is a great thing there is this liberty left.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY TEA FOR GRADUATES

(intended for a previous issue)

When the first Nurses' Refresher Course was completed at the West Haldimand General Hospital on Thursday, November 10th, the Hospital Auxiliary held a Silver Tea to mark the occasion

The tea table, set with a green and silver cloth, was centered with a bouquet of pink carnations and white mums. Mrs. Stanley Brown, Hagersville, poured tea, assisted by Mrs Margaret VanLoon, Mrs. Julia Nauman and Mrs. Leone Slack Mrs. Marr, In-Service Supv., thanked the ladies for holding the tea

This was the first Refresher Course held by the Hospital and ran for two days a week for four weeks It was conducted by Mrs. Marr, In-Service Supv under the direction of Mrs. Webb, Director of Nurses There were lectures on nursing care and Medical lectures given by the Medical Staff Orientation on the floor will follow

Nurses taking the course were:— Cayuga, Mrs. Peter Quinn; Waterford, Mrs. Fern Hall, Mrs. Dora Anderson, Simcoe, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Caledonia, Mrs Marion Stubbs, Mrs. Margaret Cowie, Mrs Evelyn Holstein, Mrs. Fred Brown Mrs. Carol Salad

An impression that stays with us is the width of the streets in these western towns. Also the civic pride so plainly evident in so many ways. Parks and Playgrounds for the children Flowers, wonderful schools, fine stores and a general atmosphere of friendliness The Montanaians and Dakotans all wear the Western Stetson hats and never take them off, even when they are dining with their wives in a public restaurant.

Our schedule calls for our return to Jarvis on Sunday. Two days away with still about 1500 miles to traverse One member of the party wants to take time to buy some U. S. merchandise before crossing the border The other three members of the party talk about the evils of smuggling. He still wants to buy some stuff. Then, another member of the party wants to stop and say hello to Charlie Bier at Sault St Marie We can imagine how long that stop will be. Then we have to divest ourselves of another member of the party at Sudbury where he will catch a plane to Timmins. It will all take time. Somehow we imagine another day will be involved before we hit the torn up streets of Jarvis.

Under Wide Skies

- By Rosemary Hill -

There appear to be two types of people in the world—those who catch colds and those who laugh up their sleeve at their unfortunate fellows The second group seems, indeed, to find the whole idea hilariously funny Ironically, few doctors suffer from colds and this probably accounts for their astonishing lack of helpful suggestions.

As I write, I sit bundled in bedclothes My head is hot and my feet are cold My throat is raw and raspy, as if I had swallowed sandpaper My eyes are red and crusty. My lips are cracked and my nose is sore I can feel the agonizing tingle of a sneeze being born There is a chicken roasting in the kitchen but I cannot smell it. In other words, I feel miserable

What am I doing about it all? Well, I just took another aspirin That's what the doctors tell you to do I might as well not bother, though, for all the difference it makes Doctors also say that a cold must run its course What they really mean is that they don't know how to cure it

Why don't they know how to cure it—or at least prevent it effectively? Can the common cold be an insurmountable stumbling-block to men who are makig such enormous strides in every other field of medicine? Perhaps there has been little activity in this area because doctors feel there is little glory to be gained from so humble a victory. After all, how many people have died from the common cold?

Maybe it never kills anyone, but it makes thousands of people miserable year after year after year Here, then, is a field of endeavour for a dedicated man. He would be rewarded, at the very least, by the heartfelt gratitude of innumerable sufferers, and I would consider him worthy of the Nobel prize!

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY TOURS LABORATORY

(intended for a previous issue)

The Jarvis Unit of the West Haldimand Hospital Auxiliary held their regular meeting on November 9th.

Mr. Golian, Laboratory Technician, showed us his laboratory and explained many of the tests he makes. They were interesting and informative

From here, the ladies proceeded to Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church for the meeting which opened with the Auxiliary Prayer by Marie Brohman Secretary Joyce Halliwell read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll

President, Helen Snowden gave a report stating that the Fashion Show held in October showed an approximate net profit of $180.15 Receipts in the Coffee Shop were $1,397.70 for September and $1115.78 for October The Coffee Shop has a Savings balance of $4,000.00 which will be used for a worth while project.

The Auxiliary has purchased linen and has made towels made These are now in use. They have also purchased a new X-ray table, a new commode chair for the chronic Ward and started a reference library for the nurses

Tickets for the Candlelight Ball are available from Mrs Bette Rushton, Mrs H. I. Snowden or Mrs Jim Davidson

Mrs. Snowden thanked all who helped make the Fall Rally held in our hospital, a success.

Springvale unit will be holding a card party and bazaar

The Auxiliary is still trying to get a lighter cart In the meantime, anyone who feels the present cart is too cumbersome may use a basket or the grocery cart used previously, but please do go around

More dishes are being purchased but it is suggested that dishes be kept washed so you will not run short.

The hospital is hoping to start a blood bank and all interested are invited to help out No one will be asked to give blood without first checking with your family doctor

The Hospital Board has bought a house as a residence for 3 men on the hospital staff The Auxiliary will furnish it If anyone has anything useful and wishes to donate it please

LAMB'S CORNERS P.J.'s MEETINGS

(intended for a previous issue)

The fourth meeting of the Lamb's Corners' P.J's was held Sat., Oct. 29, 1966 at the home of Candace and Sheila Wood at 9.30 A.M. We learned how to put on piping. Mrs. Sheppard read over "Miss Binbers' pamplet. 18 girls answered the roll call which was "Show a sample of materias for pyjamas or nightgown (state which) and name a seam suitable for it" Some pinned their patterns together so we could use them this week The meeting was dismissed with the singing of "God Save the Queen" and lunch was served

The fifth meeting of the Lamb's Corners' P.J's was held Sat. Nov. 5, 1966 at the home of Dorothy Allan at 9.30 A.M. The meeting opened with O Canada and the 4-H Pledge 16 girls answered the roll call "A suggestion for improving my Record Book"

Miss Balden came to this meeting She told us some of the trips that could be won. Mrs Harv. Miss Balden and the girls discussed our exhibit for Achievement Day. Mrs. Hire showed us how to put on collars and the continuous lap. We worked on our garments with some working at the machines. We closed with the Queen and lunch was served.

On Saturday, November 19, 1966 our seventh meeting of the Lamb's Corners' P.J's was held in the home of Miss. Dianne Verboome at 9.30 A.M.

We opened with the 4-H pledge and O Canada. Kathryn Field explained a new method of saying the pledge which hand motions which she learned at the 4-H Conference in Ottawa. She recounted some of the interesting points about her trip and showed us some colourful pamphlets.

We discussed our Roll Call which involved pointers about our poster for achievement day After this, Mra Hare proceeded to show us how to master hems and with the assistance of Mrs. Dennis showed us how to sew on buttons. The girls were given samples of materials to put in their record book: We were helped by our leaders to sew up our garments.

With this accomplished we closed the meeting with "God Save The Queen". Mrs Verboome served us a delicious beverage and cookies.

Our next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 24, 1966 at 7:00 P.M. in the home of Miss Ruth Snowden.

STONE CHURCH EVENING AUXILIARY

(intended for a previous issue)

The Stone Church Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs Nelson Nopper. The president, Mrs Harold Wren, opened the meeting with a prayer. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison, scripture Psalm 121:1-8 was read by Mrs. Nelson Nopper. Hymn 74 was sung. The prayer in the November Glad Tidings was given by Mrs. Jack Biggar. Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, and correspondence was dealt with. The committee in charge of the two banquets coming up, tabled ov, what was to be done and made final details.

Election of officers for 1967 took place with Mrs Lawson Campbell in charge President, Mrs. Harold Wren: 1st Vice Pres. Mrs. Hubert Lint: 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. Lloyd Rutherford; Secretary, Mrs. Wm. Carpenter: Treas. for Missions, Mrs. Wilfred Roth; Treas for Expenses, Mrs. Lloyd Rutherford; Supply Secretary, Mrs. Earl Makey; Home Helpers Sec., hrs Douglas Martin; Welcome and Welfare, Mrs. Nelson Nopper; Glad Tidings See., Mrs George Willis; Librarian, have done it again. The last time was an old-time Variety Program to raise money to send some boy or girl of a Mountain Tribe in Formosa to High School for a year The latest venture was a bus excursion into "Club II" for 18 couples on November 11th. Those local folks who like to watch the Channel II, Saturday Night Dance Party at 8.30 P.M. will have recognized several of the High School age group enjoying themselves in a very well-chaperoned affair By chaperoned, I mean of course, that every one of them would be very conscious of the fact that upwards of several thousand people would be looking on through the medium of television. According to reports, our young folks must have made a good impression on the CBC and his staff for they received another set of tickets to return again on December 9th. Paul Rutherford and his dance partner for the evening, Shirley Smith, won the spot dance and much to their dismay (?) found themselves right on camera for moments that must have seemed like an eternity. Congratulations anyway, Paul and Shirley The second half of the dance program will be broadcast this coming Saturday night, November 19th Any young folks wishing to enquire about the next excursion please contact Marsha Ann Lint, secretary of Chalmers' Young People

Advance Notices—Knox White Gift Ceremony is scheduled for Sunday morning December 11 Sunday comes on Christmas Day this year. Services at both churches will be carol services of forty minutes for the whole family.

Christmas Program dates for the two church schools are as follows: Chalmers S S Dec. 23rd at 8.30 o'clock (Friday); Knox S S December 17; Pot Luck Supper at 7 o'clock and program following.
