H.H.S. NOTES
(intended for a previous issue)

Attendance on October 1st in 385; Grade 9—142, Grade 10—110, Grade 11—90, Grade 12—35, and Grade 13—28. There are 21 full-time teachers, and two part-time instructors in the property on Marathon School. The boys are scheduled for their entire term in the school on October 13th in the Community Centre.

Our Upper School results were good this year and many of our grads are going to college, or some form of higher education. We are happy to report that in addition to Ontario Scholarship, which were won by Cathy Murray and Bonnie Mellenbacher, Cathy has also won the McMaster Scholarship worth $2000. In other words, four years free tuition fees.

Former student Ruth Martin has also distinguished herself in her Third Year Honours at McMaster, winning a $200 Scholarship awarded for high standing in the course. Madeline King has also won top honours in her Second Year Honours Chemistry at McMaster. The Cynamide of Canada Scholarship worth $1000 was awarded to Cathy Murray.

The annual Commencement Exercises of the Cayuga High School were held on the evening of Saturday, November 26. After the invocation by Rev. Carl Lantz B. D., the programme proceeded with a welcome from Mr. O. W. Saunders, Principal and Mr. Merle Elliott, Chairman of West Haldimand District High School Board. The Valedictory address was given by Dennis Farrell.
