

It's hard sometimes to accept the public attitude or perhaps, we should say, the attitude as expressed by purveyors of public opinion. Take, for example, the expose of the eminent "Telegraph" columnist, Frank Tumpene, on Tuesday. He says the Weiridos who populate the Yorkville district in Toronto should be tolerated because they are only dirty, disreputable beatniks. While he is a dirty, repulsive, repellent individual, in the opinion of Mr. Tumpene, he says this is the Weirido's privilege. We'd say that is very magnanimous on the part of Mr. Tumpene. We'd run 'em in.

Mr. Tumpene continues that the problem in this latest four-article series (Yorkville) is the brutish loots, known as Greasers, who wear black leather jackets and ride high powered motorcycles. Says Mr. Tumpene and, we think, correctly, the greaser type is everyone's enemy. They live for violence, for disruption for creating havoc. They are antisocial. Mr. Tumpene would concentrate on hustling the Greasers out of Yorkville and have the police come to terms with the Weiridos who, in his opinion, should populate the area. We agree with him only to a point and that is the Weiridos cause no more public trouble than the hard-working

NORWICH, ONT. (CP) - Council agreed to a proposal from Police Chief Kenneth McLaughlin that local officers should carry sawed-off shot guns. "You never know," said Chief McLaughlin when asked why the weapon will have a short barrel, like a riot gun.

What an advertisement this is for the Village with hundreds of people passing along the Port Dover highway during the summer season, and what an effect it must have on the adjacent property values. Oneida Township recently passed a by-law forbidding the use of lots as dumps etc. Kitchener - Waterloo have been broadcasting during the past week advocating cleaning up vacant lots and unused buildings and having inspection by the Fire Chief and Weed Inspector.

Cannot something be done to discourage slobs and install a little civic pride in them instead of handing out so much propaganda to those who are trying to beautify the community and are set back by the slovenliness of others.

Yours truly,
E. Ingleby
