

The difficulty, of course, has always lain in putting a price tag on the manifold household duties which are the daily lot of all good wives. Now, however, the economic research department of a leading bank has taken the bull by the horns and come up with a dollar-and-cents evaluation calculated to elate every husband and shatter every wife. The little survey, the report says, is worth a cool $8,285 a year if paid at the going rate for all the work she does around the house.

The itemize it this way: as a nursemaid—$55.63 a week; dietitian—$30.00; food buyer—$4.95; cook—$32.75; dishwasher—$9.30; housekeeper—$26.25; laundress—$11.21; seamstress—$3.25; practical nurse—$1.20; maintenance man—$3.83; gardener—$3.57; chauffeur—$4.40. All of which, if you are still with us, daddy dear, adds up to exactly $139.34 a week.

When we opened our mail this week we'll have to admit we thought there would be certain advantages in not owning a wide lot, particularly when a frontage tax is being imposed on the installation of water works and sewage. Upon reflection, however, there are many facets of life that strike one the same way. It's something like the feeling of getting into a dentist's chair. Time, of course, eliminates that memory. Likewise the frontage tax, we hope. It will be necessary, as usual, to have the full co-operation of the man who holds the purse strings at the local bank. We can just see that look on his face now.

Everyone will be keeping their fingers crossed hoping for good weather over the week end. If the heavens produce the moisture that has been coming down in recent weeks there will be a run on rubber boots. No use fearing the worst. It may be nice and sunny for the Victoria Day celebration, in which case there will be plenty of dust but we can still enjoy the day and mark the unpleasantness as a cost in the price of progress.

Our Lady of Lourdes, Hagersville and St. Anne's, Walpole. The May C.W.L. meeting was chaired by Mrs. Lawrence Maggio.

Mrs. George Anderson was again appointed Spiritual Convener for the coming year, along with other conveners returned for a second term.

Tickets were available for the annual St. Catharines' Diocesan C.W.L. Convention to be held at Pruthomme's Garden Centre, Vineland on May 29th.

A new Catechism for Grade 2 school children was shown and explained by one of the members. A number of these books will be purchased by the League for the Parish school.

The League will also assist with the Graduation Exercises.

The President of the Evening Auxiliary held the May Meeting at her home on May 12 opening with a poem "Only One Mother", followed by prayer and all repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Hymn 404.

Elizabeth Mitchell and Mrs. Hazlett had charge of the programme. Elizabeth offered prayer. Hazlett read from the Study Book on "The Ministry of Reconciliation" followed by Elizabeth reading on "The World is our Parish".

Both spoke on Missionary work in the countries of Formosa, India, Nigeria and West-tern Canada.

The closing hymn was followed by the Mizpah Benediction.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Swing. Also a Bake Sale will be held at the home of Mrs. Lily Miller some time in June.
