RESUME MEETINGS

(Intended for last issue)

Silver Star Rebekah Lodge held their first meeting following the summer vacation with a good attendance.

Communications were heavy having built up during the summer. A letter from the district secretary was read announcing the dates for the installations of the jurisdiction to be held in October. Silver Star Lodge will join with the Oddfellows for double installations on the 19th of September at the Community Centre on the 19th of October. Tentative plans were made for the visit of Pauline Taylor, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario who will be in this district early in December when Silver Star Lodge will be visited by the Oddfellows for double installations on the 19th of September at the Community Centre on the 19th of October.
