as guest speakers Miss Nora Jamieson gave us a brief historical sketch of the Troquois and of the Six Nations. She spoke of their tribal customs and showed articles demonstrating their crafts. These included beautiful articles of beadwork, woven baskets, carvings and paintings. Her sister, Miss Julia Jamieson, continued the topic and spoke of attending Caltonia High School with some of the members present at the meeting. She spoke with pride of the achievements of her family which included teachers, a medical doctor, and a member of the faculty of the University of Toronto. These ladies can be seen at the House, on the fourth weekend. Miss Julia Jamieson has been so interested in serving the Ladies Auxiliary that she has written and presented to the Ladies Auxiliary a beautiful article of beadwork. Miss A. Corbin of the Ontario Institute, made a presentation to the members of West Haldimand Women's Institute. The Willow served dainty refreshments at the close of the meeting.
