The recent controversy over Logexpo and the places that it recommended for lodgings has damaged the reputation of Canada's Tourist Industry. Vacationers, whether they be from Canada or the United States, who are dissatisfied with the services they pay for or who feel that they have not received full value for their money are quick to spread the word of their displeasure It doesn't.

TRAIN WRECK KILLS TWO
A train crash west of Timmins left two dead last week when a CNR Super Continental passenger train smashed headon into an 84-car freight train. The bodies of W. Stanley Hud son, engineer on the passenger train and James Ray, fireman, were found in the wreckage. Both were from Hornepayne.
