

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: I am wondering where the people are in your community?

I have been to the Jarvis Community Centre for the last four Saturday nights to see the White Oaks Jamboree, featuring all Canadian talent, and will give anyone in the area a chance to show their talents. Some of our local acts are featured in this show.

I think it is a shame to let all of this talent go elsewhere or to waste when it could be kept in our own district. Why not give them a chance?

My sincerest, Mr. Pete Friesen, Jarvis, Ontario.

ON THE FARM FRONT Brief Notes For The Busy Farmer

Some calls have been made to dairy farms in the county where purchased dairy cattle are kept to discuss an application for R.O.P.

Most breed organizations are anxious to have more herds and more cows tested. Now is the time to give this matter serious thought.

Interest in the Regional Short Courses has been very keen. Courses to 50 persons have been held.

Do we leave to waste? Like wheat. Unguarded in the field. The ability of man who could be great.

Do we turn our backs and fail to recognize their strength? Leave them broken by defeat. Is their nose among us? To lead us back to dignity.

Do we start an age in honor, to lift our place from out of the dust? Can we tear this page from the history books?

Do we start an age, and do not think of all the difficulties we have had through life with people like Sam Morris and Don Austin to mention only two.

FAMILY FARM BUSINESS ARRANGEMENTS

A blueprint for keeping your farm in the family has been drawn up by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

It is contained in a booklet, Family Farm Business Arrangements, which may be obtained from the Bank branches.

By writing to the Agricultural Department, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, 25 King Street West, Toronto 1, Ontario, you will receive a copy of this booklet.

1. Draw up an operating agreement that best suits the family.

2. Operate the farm business as a separate legal entity.

3. Plan and carry out the transfer of the farm to the next generation.

4. Arrange to provide an income for retirement.

5. Prepare the farm estate so that all plans will be followed.

The booklet gives specific advice on all of these points and lists publications available for further reference.

6. A practical approach is made to the problems of apprenticeship and eventual partnership.

7. The booklet also explains the possibility of a rental arrangement to provide retirement income for farm parents.

8. Methods of transferring of farm property are also explained along with the taxes these transactions will attract.

9. Estate taxes, and the importance of providing for the family in estate planning.

10. Within a radius of 50 miles in the southwest section of Maine are towns named China, Norway, Naples, Athens, Persimmon, Dresden, Palermo, Belfast, Mexico, Paris, Lisbon, and Frankfurt.

MONIQUE LEYRAC Entertains every Wednesday afternoon on the CBC radio network. Her internationally famous French-Canadian singing star, and sings the songs which prompted Paris critics to liken her to the late Edith Piaf.

FLASHBACK HOST

Popular Canadian TV and radio personality JIMMY TAPP is the host for the CBC-TV panel show FLASHBACK which returned to the CBC network last fall for its fifth season.

From studies of the "soil of the world" it has been discovered that there are over 20 variations of soil type in result in the introduction of new wine grapes to the Niagara peninsula, never before known quantities.

Ten years later the same variety of grapes are now being produced and acclimated to the Niagara peninsula, never before known quantities.

French vines were some 20 years ago imported from France to the Niagara peninsula, never before known quantities.
