

Under Wide Skies

By Resamary Hill

Our readers are aware that in the course of a future metropolis, Jarvis is currently in a state of ugly despair.

Editor Sam gave instructions to his chauffeur early one morning last week to bring his limousine up to the front door for a scheduled trip to Hamilton.

After reading about the proposed bridge across Lake Erie, supposedly being advanced by Ohio's Governor, James Rhodes...

Popularity is a subject that interests most people. Magazine articles, handbooks, and even best sellers have explored at length many aspects of art of being likeable.

One can find in this remark, many clues to the speaker's warm, human personality. She is observant. Rather than being secretly envious of another woman's attractive clothes...

We're sorry we couldn't think of anything better to talk about this week than Sam Morris. But with the preparation of the 14th Annual Meeting...

unselfishly. A friend of long standing, she has a good memory for the delightful little details that enhance a pleasant talk about old times.

There are three million people around the world today who have heard the voice of God for the first time in their lives.

After reading about the proposed bridge across Lake Erie, supposedly being advanced by Ohio's Governor, James Rhodes...
