Centennial Report

1867 | 1967

RCAP planes flying over Canada's isolated communities in the far north are going to be air-dropping some unusual cargo in the months ahead. During the coming school year the planes will be making air-drops of bright new medallions, souvenirs of Canada's Centennial, to the school children of the north. Why air-drops? Well, some of those communities are so isolated there simply is no other way for deliveries to coincide with distribution of the medallions to the rest of Canada's school population in time for presentation in class rooms by June 1, 1967.

REYNOLDS REGISTERS SHUT-OUT IN I.O.O.F. WIN

The Jarvis I.O.O.F. Bantams upset the first place Hagersville Americans on Wednesday evening, December 21st in the roughest encounter of the season. For twenty minutes of the first half both teams played heads-up hockey with the Hagersville crew having a slight edge in play.

Both goalkeepers shone in their respective roles, and the I.O.O.F. one. In the second half the game started to get rough. As the first half of the game ended the I.O.O.F. were ahead 1-0 and the penalties were starting to add up.

In the first half the Hagersville crew was called for four penalties and the I.O.O.F. crew was called for two. The Americans played almost the entire half of the game with three forwards to the I.O.O.F. four. This made the difference in the game as the I.O.O.F. with a player advantage, worked into position and on a slick pass from Ross Gowan, Larry Vokes drove the puck into the net for an I.O.O.F. 2-0 win.

I.O.O.F. BANTAMS TIED FOR FIRST IN STANDINGS

The I.O.O.F. Bantams found themselves tied for first place in the League standings, when they came out ahead of the Oneida Indians on Wednesday evening, December 20th.

It seemed the boys had a little too much turkey on Christmas Day as they seemed laggy in the last game of the old year. Although the Oneida Indians were short handed for the contest, they gave their all, each and everyone of them as they never gave up and had the calls holding on for dear life.

The I.O.O.F. went ahead in the last minutes of the first half on a goal by Larry Vokes assisted by Ray Gibbons. Doing their part and tugging in capacity were Larry Cowan and Donnie Doughty. Bryce Hazlett, and Jimmy Church with a sore knee turned in a fine game.
